2012 Calendars

We will distribute calendars the weekend of Dec. 31 and Jan. 1st. There will be a special blessing as we welcome the new calendar year. Our special thanks to Elmwood Chapel for their generosity in sponsoring our 2012 calendars.

The rush is over—the presents are unwrapped. Did you get everything at Christmas that you always wanted? If not—maybe we need to remember the virtue of gifts that are sent without even any pretty paper or bows:

Christmas Gifts
Alberta Dredia

Of all the gifts that Christmas brings,
The best are made of little things:
Melody of carols all the year;
Cheer to friends that you hold dear;
Courage to someone else to start
Some task for which he hasn't heart;
Thoughts for those with less than you;
Faith though the future's not in view;
Fun and laughter to go everywhere;
Kindness to show how much you care;
Strength to begin all over again;
And love to seek the best in every man.
While other seasons come and go
And another year hurries past,
Let's give again the little things—

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

A new year is upon us. This is as good a time as any to look ahead and to see what we need to do to draw closer to God. Much as we make New Year's Resolutions, let us propose that we make resolutions that deal with our practice of our faith. Do you spend time in prayer on a regular basis? If not, resolve to do so. If you spend time in prayer on a somewhat regular basis, resolve to increase that time to a daily basis.

Do you celebrate your faith by attending Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation? If not, consider resolving to do so. If you already do, consider adding a weekday Mass or two to your regular schedule.

There are other resolutions you can make in this New Year:

- Pray the rosary daily.
- Volunteer to help in our food pantry
- Visit the sick or a shut in
- Become a lector or Eucharistic Minister
- Have your family pray together on a regular basis
- Join a Faith Sharing Group in our Parish

The list could go on and on. This would be a wonderful way to begin a new year. That way, we will ensure ourselves that we will be on a different spiritual level next year. Drawing closer to God and to one another, we can do the work that Jesus asks of each and every one of us. Happy New Year to all!

Vocation Thoughts

JANUARY 1 –
MARY THE MOTHER OF GOD

Mary, our Blessed Mother, is the greatest example of someone who placed all her trust in the Lord, despite not comprehending God's plan for her. Will you place your trust in God, and consider a vocation to the priesthood? Men of college-age and older are invited to an Exploring Priesthood Weekend retreat to learn about, pray, and reflect on the possibilities of diocesan priesthood in Chicago. The next EPW is January 13-15, 2012. To register contact Fr. Brian Welter at 312-534-8298 or bwelter@archchicago.org See www.ChicagoPriest.com for more details.

"We become saints not by violently overcoming our own weakness, but by letting the Lord give us the strength and purity of God's Spirit in exchange for our weakness and misery"

A Blessed New Year

Numbers 6:22-27

“The LORD bless you and keep you!”

We begin the new year with hope. It is filled with possibility. Our calendars may look empty, but they will soon be filled with activity and events. We already have plans for some of them. Other events will surprise us. We realize this year will bring a measure of sorrow, but we trust it to also bring a measure of joy.

Let this day and this year be a blessing. Today we hear the words of blessing spoken by God to Moses. “The Lord bless you and keep you.” They are words of favor. “The Lord give you peace!” They are words that wish the finest blessing, the gift of peace.

This new year, with all its promise, gives us the possibility of blessing. Perhaps you have withheld blessing from someone you know. Perhaps you especially need God's gift of peace. Perhaps you fear the absence of God's protection. Let this blessing calm your heart. Let it inspire you to breath God's gift of peace to all you meet this day and this new year.

In early January we're still enjoying the season of Christmas. We have many more days to sing carols, to invites, guests over, to share the peace of the season. In this bright new year let the blessing of God, first spoken to Moses, echoing throughout the ages, enter your home and warm your heart.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

USING MEDIA TO EVANGELIZE

Evangelization has always been the mission of the Catholic Church. The call to evangelize first given to us by Christ requires that we proclaim the word of God using every means of communication. In the Church today using the media has become indispensable in bringing the Gospel message into the world through the internet, radio, and television.

Continuing through January 8th, there will be an evangelization initiative reaching people across the nation, using advertisement that invite Catholics to come home. The Archdiocese of Chicago is not funding this initiative; it is funded by Catholics Come Home, INC of Atlanta, GA. All parishioners are encouraged to take advantage of this part in this evangelization effort in three simple ways:

- When you see someone new or unfamiliar at Mass, introduce yourself and welcome them to the parish.
- The ads on TV may result in unexpected conversations about the Catholic faith. When someone talks about the ads listen carefully to their interests in the Catholic faith. You might invite them to join you for Mass if they don't have a home parish.
- If you know someone who is Catholic and no longer attends Mass, invite them to come home for the 'holidays'.
- If you are at work or on the bus and you hear people talking about something even remotely related to faith, tell them about Catholics Come Home and invite them to your parish.

In these four simple ways you continue the mission that Jesus gave to all his followers, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19). If you need more information, please call 312-534-3855.

WEEKLY OFFERINGS

Due to the advanced holiday printing schedule, we will publish our offering collection next week.

Christmas Offerings: Thank you to those who have responded so generously with your Christmas envelopes. If you have not yet had the opportunity to complete your Christmas offering to the parish, you may continue to do so throughout the month of January. We will then make a final report of all Christmas offerings received.

Initial Offering Envelopes: Please remember to use your Initial Offering Envelope in the January packet. A suggested donation of $10.00 will help defray the cost of printing and mailing contribution envelopes.

St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box - $266.00

St. Vincent de Paul During the past year, you have brought comfort and peace to many of our parishioners by your support of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. May the peace and joy of this Holy Season be yours. "The Poor Boxes are the bread boxes of the poor."
