The Epiphany Proclamation 2012

It is ancient custom—from the centuries before popular, printed calendars—that on the day of Epiphany the date of Easter would be solemnly proclaimed aloud in parish churches.

Epiphany is the remembrance of a star that guided people to an even greater Light! Easter—a “movable feast” — is the season of the light of the Risen Christ. Thus the chant announcing Easter’s date would be as follows:

*My brothers and sisters,
Today on the Solemnity of His Epiphany,
the glory of the Lord has shone forth upon us,
And it shall ever be manifest among His people,
until the day of His glorious return.*

*Within the measure of Nature’s times and seasons,
let us observe with celebration the mysteries of faith.
Let us call to mind:*

*The great and most holy Easter Triduum of Christ:
His paschal supper, His passion and crucifixion,
His descent among the dead, and His glorious rising—celebrated from the night of Holy Thursday—the 5th of April through the hours of Good Friday—the 6th of April, in silence on Holy Saturday—the 7th of April blooming into the joy Easter Sunday—the 8th day of April.*

*Each Sunday will be as another Easter Day, when the Holy Church presents anew
the great and saving deeds whereby Jesus has conquered over sin and death.*

From the date of Easter are reckoned all the days we keep in holiness.

Ash Wednesday—the 22nd of February

The day of the Lord’s Ascension—the 20th of May

Pentecost Sunday—the 27th of May

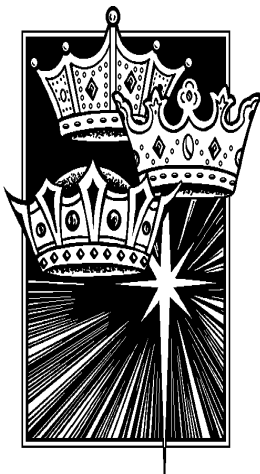

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—the 10th day of June.

Until the year of grace comes full circle, and we observe again the First Sunday of Advent—on the 2nd of December.

In the same way, the Church of God, in the pilgrimage of time, proclaims the glory of Christ:

In the feasts of the Virgin Mother of God, in the feasts of the Apostles, the martyrs, and all the saints, and in the commemoration of the faithful departed.

*By the guidance of a star, wise men were led to the Christ Child.
May we follow Him all the days of the year.*

We pray for . . .

The Baptism of the Lord

Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38

Something happened at the baptism of Jesus. John had been using baptism as a way of ushering people into a new way of life. They turned down a new path on life's journey and placed themselves completely at the service of God.

When Jesus accepted baptism by John, his public ministry began. He worked wonders. He preached about the reign of God. He acquired disciples. He foretold his death and resurrection. He prayed. He lived for God alone when the evangelists searched out how this ministry began, they all turned back to the same moment: the baptism of John.

In Acts of the Apostles, Peter went to the house of Cornelius the Gentile, because Cornelius wanted to know more about Jesus. Peter began teaching by summarizing the life of Jesus. He did it the same way the evangelists did: God proclaimed peace, "beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached," where "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power."

Many of us can point to a moment when something happened in our lives, too. Perhaps there was one day when we started looking at the world a lot differently. We saw more clearly who we were and what God wanted us to be. We pledged to be faithful to the God who loves us, and ever since, we have striven to live out our commitment. No one did it as perfectly as Jesus, but we are all called by God for some purpose.

Vocation Thoughts

JANUARY 8 – EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

The Magi come to do our Lord homage. How can we, as individuals living in today's world pay homage to our Lord? Have you ever thought of a vocation to the priesthood or religious life? For more info about priesthood contact Fr. Brian Welter at 312-534-8298 or at bwelter@archchicago.org. Check out www.ChicagoPriest.com. For info on religious life contact Sr. Elyse Ramirez, OP at 312-534-5240 or erami-rez@archchicago.org, and for the Permanent Diaconate program contact Deacon Bob Puhala at 847-837-4562 or bpuhala@usml.edu.

COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA - Weekend of January 14/15, 2012

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Imagine over 700 children getting ready to receive the Eucharist for the first time in their lives! Through the generous support provided by the Collection for the Church in Latin America, last year these young boys and girls from St. Blaise parish in El Pozón, Colombia were taught by trained catechists so that they were well prepared for their First Holy Communion.

For many in the twenty- two countries of South America and the Caribbean, the funds from this collection provide the only help that individual parishes receive to sustain and enrich the faith of their parishioners. Your contributions to this collection will assist in the formation of seminarians, permanent deacons, religious sisters and brothers, and lay ministers of the Gospel.

The natural disasters which occurred in 2010 continue to challenge the Church in Latin America. Your participation in this collection will help the Church to re-establish and strengthen her presence in this region and ensure that the faithful can continue to experience the Lord's love in the sacraments and in their local parish communities.

I am grateful for your support of your local parish, the Archdiocese and the Universal Church. May God, who is never outdone in generosity, continue to bless you and your loved ones in this New Year. You and your intentions are in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago
