A Christmas Thank You!

As we bring the Christmas Season to an end with today's feast, The Baptism of the Lord, I am sure we can appreciate the work and preparation that was put into it. It began during Advent with our weekly lighting of the advent wreath, the increasing numbers of people faithfully attending the novena for Our Lady of Guadalupe, and decorating the parish Christmas tree with our favorite ornaments as we heard "O Christmas Tree" on pipe organ, hand bells, and violin. The food and fellowship provided by the hospitality committee afterward brought the celebration to a warm conclusion.

The inside of the church is the first visual experience one has when entering it. The Christmas decorations, the nativity scene, the candles, flowers, and cleanliness of the church are all visual expressions of our joyful faith at Christmas. We wish to thank the liturgy committee for all their preparation to make our church so beautiful for Advent (especially the new advent wreath) and Christmas.

We wish to thank our choirs and cantors for their time and talent and for all the rehearsal work. Many parishioners complemented the St. Florian Choir for their Christmas choral program before Mass as well as the hymn "O Come, O Come, Emanuel" sung in the original Latin. As it was sung in the darkened church, four parishioners processed down the main aisle with large white candles. It was a beautiful way to enter into the Christmas Mass at night.

To all our lectors, ministers of communion, altar servers, ushers, ministers of care, organist, instrumentalists, sacristan, and to all those who put up the Christmas trees and cribs, a heartfelt thanks.

We also would like to acknowledge our rectory staff who worked extra hard as they took care of getting the bulletins out earlier and attending to extra mailings, phone calls, and door bells. Thank to our counters who also took the extra time and care with all of our Christmas collections.

A special thanks to all of you, our parishioners, who prayerfully and joyfully participated in our Christmas celebrations. Thank you also for all your Christmas cards, gifts, and prayers this Christmas.

Peace and good health to all of you in 2009,

Fr. Jim

The Baptism of the Lord

Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38

Something happened at the baptism of Jesus. John had been using baptism as a way of ushering people into a new way of life. They turned down a new path on life's journey and placed themselves completely at the service of God.

When Jesus accepted baptism by John, his public ministry began. He worked wonders. He preached about the reign of God. He acquired disciples. He foretold his death and resurrection. He prayed. He lived for God alone when the evangelists searched out how this ministry began, they all turned back to the same moment: the baptism of John.

In Acts of the Apostles, Peter went to the house of Cornelius the Gentile, because Cornelius wanted to know more about Jesus. Peter began teaching by summarizing the life of Jesus. He did it the same way the evangelists did: God proclaimed peace, "beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached," where "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power."

Many of us can point to a moment when something happened in our lives, too. Perhaps there was one day when we started looking at the world a lot differently. We saw more clearly who we were and what God wanted us to be. We pledged to be faithful to the God who loves us, and ever since, we have striven to live out our commitment. No one did it as perfectly as Jesus, but we are all called by God for some purpose.

CHURCH IN LATIN AMERICA
Jan. 17/18, 2009 Collection
ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The Church in Latin America, while diverse in culture, is grounded in a deep faith that we all share as children of God. This lived faith invites all believers in this part of the world to action—to be disciples of Christ, sent by His Spirit as missionaries and leaders in their communities and beyond.

For the past 45 years, the faithful of the United States have supported the Collection for the Church in Latin America as a visible sign of their compassion and solidarity with the faithful of Latin America and the Caribbean. Proceeds from this annual collection assist in the formation of seminarians, lay ministers, catechists, and youth ministers in more than 200 dioceses throughout our southern hemisphere.

On behalf of those who, while lacking financial resources, are blessed in faith and love for Our Lord Jesus Christ, please accept my gratitude for your generous support of this collection. May God continue to bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
 Archbishop of Chicago
