Year of Sunday Mass

July 2012 - June 2013

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Know

The Mass is no classroom, but it is the place where we come to know the most important things about ourselves, our world, and our future. "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God," Jesus says. If we pay attention in the Mass, we come to know extraordinary things.

In and through the Mass, we know that God loves us. We know that forgiveness is in reach. We know that death does not have the last word. We know that Jesus, the Bread of Life, walks with us and sustains us.

Amazingly, at Mass we come to know the inner life and intentions of God. The words of Jesus become true for us: "And no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him" (Matthew 11:27).

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Conocer

La misa no es un salón de clase; más bien es un lugar donde aprendemos las cosas más importantes de nosotros mismos, de nuestro mundo y de nuestro futuro. "A ustedes se les comunica el secreto del reino de Dios", dice Jesús. Poniendo atención en la Misa, llegamos a comprender cosas extraordinarias.

En la Misa y a través de ella, sabemos que Dios nos ama. Sabemos que el perdón está a nuestro alcance. Sabemos que la muerte no tiene la última palabra. Sabemos que Jesús, el Pan de vida, camina con nosotros y nos sostiene. Esto es extraordinario.

Pero todavía más asombroso es que en la Misa llegamos a conocer los propósitos de Dios y hasta su propia vida interior. Allí, las palabras de Jesús se nos hacen realidad: "... nadie conoce al Hijo, sino el Padre; nadie conoce al Padre, sino el Hijo y aquél a quien el Hijo decida revelárselo" (Mateo 11:27).

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

January 13, 2013

"The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ..." and John the Baptist directs their attention away from himself toward Jesus.

Has the celebration of Mass ever empowered me to direct others to Jesus?

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

January 13, 2013

"El pueblo estaba en la duda y todos se preguntaban interiormente si Juan no sería el Mesías ...", por lo que Juan el Bautista alejó la atención de sí mismo, dirigiéndola hacia Jesús

¿Alguna vez me ha dado la celebración de la Misa la facultad de enviar a otros a Jesús?

The Baptism of the Lord

Acts of the Apostles 10:34-38

Something happened at the baptism of Jesus. John had been using baptism as a way of ushering people into a new way of life. They turned down a new path on life's journey and placed themselves completely at the service of God.

When Jesus accepted baptism by John, his public ministry began. He worked wonders. He preached about the reign of God. He acquired disciples. He foretold his death and resurrection. He prayed. He lived for God alone when the evangelists searched out how this ministry began, they all turned back to the same moment: the baptism of John.

In Acts of the Apostles, Peter went to the house of Cornelius the Gentile, because Cornelius wanted to know more about Jesus. Peter began teaching by summarizing the life of Jesus. He did it the same way the evangelists did: God proclaimed peace, "beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached," where "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power."

Many of us can point to a moment when something happened in our lives, too. Perhaps there was one day when we started looking at the world a lot differently. We saw more clearly who we were and what God wanted us to be. We pledged to be faithful to the God who loves us, and ever since, we have striven to live out our commitment. No one did it as perfectly as Jesus, but we are all called by God for some purpose.
