First Corinthians

By Paul Turner

On Sundays between the Christmas season and Lent, the second reading at Mass is taken from the "First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians." On Ordinary Time Sundays throughout the year, the second reading gives us several excerpts from the same New Testament letter for several consecutive weeks. Usually we hear a given letter for one series of weeks every three years. But Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians is an exception. It is a long, important letter, so the lectionary divides it up into three parts. We hear from it every year as Ordinary Time first gets underway.

Earlier in his career, Paul had made a lengthy visit to Corinth. After he left, members of the young Christian community contacted him about some problems and questions they were facing in his absence. Paul deals with these issues one by one. When we read the letter today, we learn about the challenges in the early church and the position Paul held on controversial topics, and we realize that some things haven't changed. It is comforting to know that the issues we face today are not new and that the solutions Paul proposes are still practical and inspirational.

The letter includes many famous passages: the divided community of Corinth, God's choice of the weak instead of the strong, the cross of Christ as a stumbling block for many, the unmarried life, the imperative to preach the gospel, the body of Christ, the gift of love, the resurrection of Christ, and the eternal life of believers. For several weeks each year, we hear familiar passages from one of the Bible's great letters. The pastoral, hopeful message of Paul can always inspire those who drop everything else and listen to his words.

Stewardship Prayer

GRACIOUS GOD,

*You sent us St. Paul
to preach the Gospel,
inspire us in faith,
and show us the way
to be good stewards
of Your grace.*

*In our time together
show us how to be
fervent ambassadors
of Christ, Your Son.*

*Grant us the wisdom
to recognize that through his gift of the Eucharist
there is one bread
and we are one body.*

Give us the courage to proclaim the Good News in word and deed.

*And in the spirit of St. Paul teach us to live,
no longer for ourselves,
but in Christ Jesus who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.*

Amen.
