Year of Sunday Mass

July 2012 - June 2013

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Serve

Serving means making ourselves available to meet the needs of others. Jesus served us in the most remarkable way. He identified his mission and his service when he said “the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many” (Mark 10:45). He serves us by giving up his life for us and for our redemption and healing. And we meet him serving us every time we celebrate the Mass— “This is my body, which will be given up for you.”

In the Mass and outside the Mass, we take the service of Jesus to our hearts. We know that we too must make ourselves available to meet the needs of others. We too must serve.

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Servir

Servir significa hacernos disponibles para remediar las necesidades de otros. Jesús nos sirvió, y del modo más notable. Identificó su misión y su servicio al decir: “El Hijo del Hombre no vino a ser servido, sino a servir y a dar su vida como rescate por muchos” (Marcos 10:45). Él nos sirve entregando su vida por nosotros, por nuestra redención y salud. Y cada vez que lo encontramos en la celebración de la Misa, nos está sirviendo: “Esto es mi Cuerpo, que será entregado por ustedes”.

En la Misa, y fuera de ella, aceptamos en nuestro corazón el servicio de Jesús. Pero comprendemos que también debemos hacernos disponibles para resolver las necesidades de los demás. Nosotros también debemos servir.

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

January 20, 2013

In the Gospel of Luke Jesus turns water into wine, “and his disciples began to believe in him.”

How does celebrating Mass help me believe in Jesus?

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

January 20, 2013

En el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús convierte el agua en vino, “ y sus discípulos creyeron en él”.

¿Cómo me ayudan a creer en Jesús el hecho de celebrar la misa?

Mass Intentions

Any Catholic may offer up the Mass in which he or she participates for any good intention. Certainly, graces will accrue in accordance with the intensity of that person's participation and sincerity. However, the custom of requesting a priest to offer the Mass for a specific intention, even when one cannot be physically present at the Mass, is a longstanding tradition in the Church. This is because the Church considers the Mass as the greatest possible prayer of intercession insofar as it is the perfect offering of Christ to the Father by making present the paschal mystery of his death and resurrection. The faithful generally make an offering, called a stipend, to the priest in order to apply the Mass to a specific intention. By making this offering, the faithful, by parting with something that is their own, associate themselves more intimately with Christ who offers himself in the sacred Host, and obtain thereby more abundant fruits. Thus, in normal circumstances, a priest may only accept one stipend for any one Mass even though he may offer up the Mass for several intentions.

2013 Mass Book

The 2013 Mass Book is open. Have you come to the rectory to make arrangements for your Mass intentions yet? Remember, Mass intentions include our deceased, in thanksgiving, anniversaries of marriages and birthdays, for good health, special intentions, etc. You can personalize your Mass intentions in any way possible.

THERE ARE MANY MASSES STILL AVAILABLE DURING JANUARY, FEBRUARY AND MARCH

Vocation Thoughts

JANUARY 20 – Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit. There are different forms of service but the same Lord. How can you serve the Lord in your own way? Men 22 to 40 years old are invited to participate in the INSEARCH Priesthood discernment program. If you feel called to the priesthood, INSEARCH will help you gain clarity around the call you feel. We meet every Tuesday night at Quigley Pastoral Center. For more info about priesthood contact Fr. Brian Welter at 312-534-8298 or at bwelter@archchicago.org, or go to www.ChicagoPriest.com.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Appreciation Party!

Volunteers are people who are willing to give of themselves — time, talent, treasure—for the good of the whole community. Volunteers do not get paid for what they do. Many people volunteer at St. Florian and for this we are most grateful. Please come and enjoy dinner, great music and a fun time as our way of saying thank you for all you do! (Spouses welcome.)
