Come Home to the Catholic Church

I proclaim your wondrous deeds.

There is a dramatic moment in today's Gospel (Lk 4:21-30). Jesus tried to tell the people of his town the truth about the messiah; that the Old Testament prophecies were fulfilled in him. The listeners did not see the connections between the past and the present moment. On hearing the truth, they were filled with fury and they drove Jesus out of town.

In the recent television ads for Catholics Come Home, you may have heard a true statement that made you uncomfortable. One of the statements seems so large and exaggerated and we don't have the historical perspective to understand the underlying truth. Have you heard the ad that says the Catholic Church "founded the college system." The contemporary liberal arts course of study is comprised of literature, language, philosophy, history, mathematics, and science which holds the historical truth in that statement.

This system was developed in the 5th Century C.E. and defined the education proper to a free man (Latin: liber, "free"), unlike the education proper to a slave. The formula remained unchanged throughout the Christianized Roman Empire of the 5th century until Arabic texts and the works of Aristotle became available in Western Europe in the 12th century.

Another line in that same TV ad states that the Catholic Church "educate(s) more children than any other scholarly or religious institution." Did you know that the largest system of Christian education in the United States is operated by the Roman Catholic Church? In the U.S. alone there are 8,500 schools, enrolling 2.7 million students. Most schools are administered by individual dioceses and parishes that also offer Religious Education to children who attend public schools.

Today, as many schools in the Archdiocese prepare for a week that celebrates Catholic Education you may want to share these facts with your family. Be proud of the Catholic Church and all it does to foster the minds and hearts of the next generation.

2010 Archdiocesan Annual Catholic Appeal

They Left Everything

This week, you are asked to review the Annual Catholic Appeal brochure that you will receive with your bulletin today. The theme of the campaign is ". . . they left everything and followed Him." (Luke 5:11)

The Apostles gave up everything to follow Jesus. You are not asked to do the same. Rather, you are asked to spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal. While funding a number of Archdiocesan ministries, the Annual Catholic Appeal is also the largest philanthropic source of financial support for ALL of the Catholics schools in the Archdiocese.

Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal campaign is much different than a one time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift, payable over five months.

As you review the work enabled by your contribution to the Annual Catholic Appeal, please reflect on God's gifts to you. He has given you all that you have. Your gifts to our parish, to the Archdiocese and to the work of the Church throughout the world are given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives you.

Sometimes it is difficult to envision how one pledge can help an organization the size of our Archdiocese, how it can make a real difference. But each pledge does make a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services.

Our combined gifts not only signify our gratitude to God they find a significant portion of the work of our Archdiocese. After our parish goal of $14,000.00 is reached in cash, 100% of the additional funds come back to our parish to help fund our needs.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you that did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, we will conduct our in-pew process at all Masses next weekend.

Participation in the 2010 Debt Reduction Initiative

St. Florian Parish has been selected for participation in this initiative. The Parish will receive credit against our parish and school debt equal to the total of all cash raised by St. Florian Parish during the Annual Appeal. This opportunity has the potential to reduce our debt with a dollar-for-dollar match from the Archdiocese.

Please prayerfully consider a generous pledge to the

What our Children

Believe

is Just as Important as What They Know

Catholic Schools struggle with declining enrollments, limited budgets and rising operational costs, still they remain a sound investment for families who take their Catholic faith seriously.

Here is what Catholic elementary and high schools offer:

1. Catholic tradition and academic excellence in a community grounded in faith.
2. Balanced curriculum that includes art, music and fitness.
3. Emphasis on moral development, service to others and leadership skills.
4. A 99 percent graduation rate in Catholic high schools.
5. Strong preparation for further education.
6. Safe and disciplined environment.
7. Exceptional faculty who help students reach their highest potential.
8. Individual attention in a caring community.
9. Commitment to the technology to enhance education.
10. Good stewardship of resources.

And Remember . . .

Eight, twelve, even sixteen years of Catholic education do not guarantee a virtuous life. Nor do they automatically prevent your child from straying off the right path, missing Sunday Mass, leaving Church, joining a cult, having a bad marriage, living in sin, or winding up in jail—or, God forbid, in hell.

What Catholic education does, is plant a seed of the Catholic faith—a well formed conscience which, despite the ravages of opposition and neglect, may someday experience a rebirth of grace that leads your now-adult child back to the full embrace of the Church and the road to salvation that it illuminates.

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

Tuesday, February 2nd is the feast of the Presentation of the Lord which occurs forty days after Christmas. On this day candles will be blessed and lit as we process into church. If you have candles at home that you would like blessed, please bring them on that day. If you do not have candles, please take one from the basket at the church entrance and return it to the basket after Mass. This day is also known as Candelmas Day with its rite of blessing and the procession with lighted candles which begins the Liturgy. Please join us for this beautiful feast on Tuesday, Feb. 2nd at the 8:15 morning Mass.

Feast of St. Blaisé

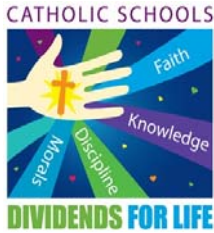

Wednesday, February 3rd is the Feast of St. Blaisé. In memory of St. Blaisé throats will be blessed at the 7:15 morning Mass. This custom began in the 16th century and continues today in many Catholic communities. Blaisé is the patron of sore throats. Throats are blessed with two unlit candles in the form of an "X" as the minister invokes the blessing of St. Blaisé.
