Year of Sunday Mass

July 2012 - June 2013

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Call

One of the greetings at the very beginning of Mass comes to us from the beginning of Saint Paul's letter to the Romans: "To all God's beloved in Rome, who are called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 1:7). The greeting "grace and peace" reminds us at each Mass, as Paul reminded the Romans, of our calling to be saints.

God calls us to be saints, that is, to be holy. It's that simple and that startling. We all have a common calling or a vocation. And it is to share in the very holiness of God. That seems to be a tall and impossible order for us who are limited and sinful. Still, God calls us. And that is why we gather at Mass, not to make ourselves holy, but to let God take hold of our lives and transform us by his holiness. Our celebration of Sunday Mass enables us to hear our calling and to fulfill it.

Llamar

Uno de los saludos al comienzo mismo de la Misa está tomado del inicio de la Carta de san Pablo a los Romanos: "A todos los que Dios amó y llamó a ser consagrados, que se encuentran en Roma: Gracia y paz a ustedes de parte de Dios nuestro Padre y del Señor Jesucristo" (Rom 1:7). El saludo de "gracia y paz" nos recuerda en cada Misa, como Pablo a los Romanos, nuestro llamado a ser santos.

Dios nos llama a ser santos. Tan simple como maravilloso. Todos tenemos este llamado común o vocación. Llamado que consiste en participar en la santidad misma de Dios. Esto pertenece a otro orden de cosas, inaccesible para nosotros, limitados y pecadores. Dios nos llama, sin embargo. Y por eso nos reunimos en la Misa, no para santificarnos unos con otros, sino para dejar que Dios asuma nuestra vida y nos transforme con su fuerza santificadora. Nuestra celebración dominical nos capacita para escuchar ese llamado de Dios y para cumplirlo.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Catechism CONNECTION

Catholics are required to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once each year. At the same time, the Church urges us to go to confession more frequently in the season of Lent to prepare our hearts to accept the sacrifice of Christ's death on the cross and his glorious resurrection at Easter.

It is called the sacrament of confession, since the disclosure or confession of sins to a priest is an essential element of this sacrament. In a profound sense it is also a "confession" — acknowledgment and praise — of the holiness of God and of his mercy toward sinful man.

It is called the sacrament of forgiveness, since by the priest's sacramental absolution God grants the penitent "pardon and peace."

It is called the sacrament of Reconciliation, because it imparts to the sinner the life of God who reconciles: "Be reconciled to God." He who lives by God's merciful love is ready to respond to the Lord's call: "Go; first be reconciled to your brother." (CCC, 1424)
