Lenten Almsgiving

Our parish almsgiving for Lent will benefit the charitable works of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. What we give up for Lent, we give in monetary form as our almsgiving. The St. Vincent de Paul boxes will be in more prominent places throughout the church during Lent. May all of us be faithful in our almsgiving throughout these forty days.

Prayers and Petitions

During this season of Lent we ask you to offer your petitions by writing them down and placing them in one of the baskets located in the back of church. The petitions will be brought up at the Presentation of the Gifts at every Sunday Mass during Lent.

RCIA UPDATE:

A Time of Purification and Enlightenment

Our catechumens, Cynthia Bahorich and Briana Martin have returned from St. Rita chapel where Bishop Francis Kane has accepted the testimony of their godparents and received them as members of the elect to be initiated into the sacred mysteries at this year's Easter Vigil.

Their final stage of preparation is a special series (three) of Lenten prayers called the scrutinies. These prayers uncover and heal what is weak and sinful in their life and strengthen what is strong and good in their life.

The scrutinies also include an exorcism. Why? Underlying the exorcism is the assumption that baptism makes a difference in our life. After we are baptized, we have the gift of God's grace every day of our life. The Holy Spirit helps us make good decisions based on the Christian life we share.

Life is different for the unbaptized. They have not enjoyed the benefits of God's grace as we have. The baptized who sin seek forgiveness. The unbaptized who sin receive an exorcism. Remember, exorcisms were a part of Jesus' ministry.

The prayers that are prayed over the elect sum up why this period of final preparation for the sacraments of initiation is called purification and enlightenment. They purify Briana and Cynthia from what is evil in their life and enlighten what is good.

Continue to pray for our elect, Cynthia and Briana and their godparents Emily Powell and Lisa Hernandez. The scrutinies begin next weekend with the Third Sunday of Lent and conclude on the Fifth Sunday of Lent.

Fr. Jim

P.S. The Book of the Elect that Briana and Cynthia signed at the 9:45 Mass last Sunday and stamped with a seal by Bishop Kane appears in our church at the foot of the statue of St. Florian in the sanctuary.

2nd Sunday of Lent

"I know how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son.." Genesis 22:12

Abraham was so devoted to God that he was willing to sacrifice his only son. How does our own devotion compare? Do we withhold time, talent and treasure from the God who sacrificed His only Son for us?
