A Jubilee Year for St. Paul

We will continue to take a meditative look at St. Paul's life in a variety of ways. Each reflection concludes with a prayer. We hope these reflections throughout the summer provide a good way to relax and enjoy one of Christianity's greatest convert: St. Paul

Paul, Communicator of Christ Crucified

As an apostle, Paul has no illusions. He does not trust in the eloquence of arguments to convince others of the truth, but on the power of God. Paul seeks to ground the hearers of his message not in the allure of human wisdom or a charming manner of speech. Rather, Paul seeks to establish them in the Paschal Mystery as he communicates the power of God, who accepted the vulnerability of the cross to save humanity.

LET US PRAY

Saint Paul, help us to be dazzled by the wisdom of this age, but to keep our eyes fixed on the power flowing from Christ's saving death and resurrection.

In Remembrance . . .

Eugene A. Mezydlo July 13, 2008

The Parish family of St. Florian expresses our deepest condolences to Fr. Jim and his family members for the loss of their father, husband & grandfather, Mr. Eugene Mezydlo.

We offer our prayers in remembrance of Mr. Mezydlo and ask for God's blessings upon Fr. Jim and his family.

Questions for Reflection on Today's Scriptures

Wisdom 12:13, 16-19
Romans 8:26-27
Matthew 13:24-43

Let everyone heed these words.

- How easy is it for you to agree that God is always fair, just, and impartial? Why would you take issue with this statement? In your family, in your town, in your nation, in the world, what evidence might lead you to question God's fairness, justice, or impartiality? What is a creative way in which you can use the questions you raise?
- How do you pray? How do you think you ought to pray? When does your prayer seem most genuine?
- What is the reign of God like? In addition to a sower, a mustard seed, and yeast, what other images could you use to describe God's reign? Why do these images work? What truths do they tell?

50th Wedding Anniversary Mass at Holy Name Cathedral

The Golden Wedding Anniversary Mass will be held at Holy Name Cathedral on Sunday, Sept. 7, at 2:30 PM. A SENSE OF ORDINARY TIME

What do the words “Ordinary Time” mean? Dorothy Day observed, “The words ‘Ordinary Time’ in our prayer books put me in a state of confusion and irritation. To me no time is ordinary.” She was right. The “Ordinary” in “Ordinary Time” refers to ordinal—counted—time, not to lack of something to celebrate. Here is what the Roman document, General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar, has to say: “Apart from those seasons having their own and distinctive characters {Advent, Christmastime, Lent, Triduum and Easter time}, 33 or 34 weeks remain in the yearly cycle that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. Rather, especially on the Sundays, they are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all aspects.”

How do we celebrate “the mystery of Christ in all its aspects?” We gather every Sunday. Sunday is the original feast day in our tradition. Christians have gathered every Sunday—the day of Christ’s resurrection, the first day of the week—ever since there were Christians.

Each year there are two blocks of Ordinary Time, one in the winter between Christmastime and Lent, and the other stretching through summer and fall, from Pentecost through Christ the King. When we gather on Sundays in Ordinary Time, as always, we hear the scriptures proclaimed. The first readings, from the Hebrew Scriptures, were chosen for their relationship with the gospel passages—this summer and fall we will read 15 different books. For the second readings, we listen to Paul’s second letter to the Corinthians and his letter to the Ephesians; we also hear from the letter of James and the letter to Hebrews. The mystery of Christ “in all its aspects” unfolds.

What is the heart of our Sunday celebration? We do our Eucharist; that is, we do our thanksgiving. We praise and thank God for all creations; we pray for the whole world, as we remember Christ’s life, death, and resurrection. We share the bread and wine, the body and blood. We are sent forth to be the body and blood of Christ in our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, our towns, our cities, our country, our world.

“What happens in our churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the kingdom. This is no ordinary at all. This is the fabric of Christian living.” (Saint Andrew Bible Missal, {Brooklyn: William J. Hirten, Co., 1982})
