A Jubilee Year for St. Paul

We will continue to take a meditative look at St. Paul's life in a variety of ways. Each reflection concludes with a prayer. We hope these reflections throughout the summer provide a good way to relax and enjoy one of Christianity's greatest convert: St. Paul

Paul, Prisoner for Christ

In the midst of all sorts of difficulties, Paul manifested firm hope and trust in God. But Paul also recognized his human weakness and the need for the prayers of his fellow Christians, so that he might proclaim the Gospel despite the personal hardship and dangers it involved. Though prison walls and iron chains deprived Paul of freedom, he declared that "the word of God is not chained" (cf. 2 Ti 2:9).

LET US PRAY

Saint Paul, help us to courageously profess our faith in Christ and the Church and to remember in prayer those who suffer for their faith.

Questions for Reflection on Today's Scriptures

Isaiah 56:1, 6, 7
Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Matthew 15:21-28
...you have great faith

- How can you build justice? How can you organize with neighbors and friends to build justice? How does the church at large try to build justice? How can you participate in the church's ongoing efforts?
- What is your attitude toward people of other faiths, and toward the Jews in particular? How well do you respect Paul's reminder that God's gifts and call are irrevocable? How well do you live the truth that God offers grace freely, to all people?
- How do you demonstrate your faith? What do you do and say to enact what you believe?
- How do you pray? What do you ask of Jesus? What do the words you say about your faith?

Please Help! We need your home cooked meals!

One of our school moms here in Hegewisch is having health concerns and could use a little help feeding her family of 7. If you would be willing to cook a meal just once a month or once a week it would really help her out. This would then allow her to get some rest and try to heal instead of using her time and energy to cook. Any and all volunteers may contact Sherri at 708/444-1089 or e-mail shamilton70@aol.com for more information. Thank you in advance for your help!
