Awaken Your Catholic Faith

Starting the weekend of September 11/12
(in Konsowski Hall after all Masses)

SOMETIMES IMPORTANT THINGS
GET AWAY FROM US -
THINGS LIKE FAITH

Awakening Faith may be just right for you. This six-session series includes topics such as:
“Spirituality: What’s the Buzz?” “Who is Jesus?” “Do I need the Spirit?”
You can learn and ask questions . . .all in a friendly and confidential setting with other Catholics.

Let’s face it, people today do not live as they did forty or even twenty-five years ago. We are busier, make more commitments, and ask more questions. We get over-prioritized and are just too distracted to keep things in order. All too often this can happen with the practice of our Catholic Faith.

Awakening Faith is a simple process. The sessions speak about the basic elements of our Catholic Faith with opportunities for conversation and sharing. They will be confidential and in a safe, comfortable environment. Of course we realize someone may not be able to make all of the sessions, but they still can benefit from coming to some of them.

Please join us in Konsowski Hall after any of the weekend Masses beginning with 4:00 on Saturday. And don’t be afraid to invite other family members or friends. Together we can awaken and reconnect with our faith!

Fr. Jim

When Someone is Unemployed

Gracious and loving God, you know our need for meaningful work. Send your Holy Spirit to guide those who are searching for employment. Help them to recognize the gifts and talents you have given them. Deepen their desire to follow your will. Inspire them as they contact potential employers. Give them patience as they wait for responses.

Shelter them from feelings of rejection. Protect them from discouragement. Give them courage to overcome fear.

Show them the graces they need to persevere.

Let this time of searching be an opportunity to grow in faith, to cultivate the virtue of hope and to experience your healing love.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." - Luke 14:14

We have a difficult time with the concept of giving without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity we often want something in return – a raffle ticket, a dinner, or a chance to play golf. Yet, as Christian stewards we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven.

Kyrie

The penitential act at Mass always includes some form of the invocations traditionally called the "Kyrie." The words constitute a brief dialogue in which a leader says, "Lord have mercy" or "Christ have mercy," and the people reply with the same words.

It is thought that the Kyrie's placement settled at the beginning of Mass after concluding each line of a lengthier litany imploring God's help for a list of intentions. Thus it may be the remains of an early form of the prayer of the faithful. Throughout most of the history of the Mass, the Kyrie had nine parts: "Kyrie, eleison" three times; "Christe, eleison" three times; and "Kyrie eleison" three times again. It was the only part of a typical Mass that was spoken in Greek instead of Latin. Ever since the 1969 revision of the Mass, the three parts of the Kyrie are said two times each instead of three.

If the assembly recites the Confiteor together at the beginning of the Mass, the Kyrie follows. The same is true of the second form of the penitential act, a brief dialogue between the priest and the people. More commonly, the Kyrie is embedded within the penitential act as the response to a longer petition. For example, the leader (not necessarily the priest) says, "You came to gather the nations into the peace of God's kingdom. Lord, have mercy." All respond, "Lord have mercy." Two more petitions follow. This is probably closer to the way the Kyrie originated—responses to a series of petitions in the style of a litany. Each set of petitions may still be sung more than twice each, in English or in Greek.

Paul Turner, Ministry & Liturgy
© 2009 Resource Publications

"Liturgy is not an option nor merely an obligation, not a bonus, but a need—like food and drink, like sleep and work, like friends. We need to gather; listen, give praise and thanks, and share communion. Otherwise we forget who we are and whose we are; and we can have neither the strength nor the joy to be Christ's body—present in the world today."

Teaching Mass

A great deal of the beauty of the Mass is lost if those participating do not have an understanding of our rituals, signs and symbols.

On Sunday, September 19, at 6:00 p.m., Father John Cusick, Director of the Young Adult Ministry, will be celebrating a Teaching Mass, which offers an opportunity to understand why we do what we do. The Mass will be held at Annunciata Church, 11128 Avenue G, Chicago.

Even though the event is focusing on attendance by young adults (ages 18-39, single or married), ALL AGES ARE WELCOME. For more information, call Dorothy at 773-978-1059.
