Year of Sunday Mass

July 2012 - June 2013

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Walk

Do you actually walk at Mass? Yes, in fact, you do. You walk in. You walk out. You walk up for Holy Communion. A few people walk up to bring the gifts to the priest. The priest himself and other ministers walk and move across the sanctuary. There is more movement in the Mass than you might expect to find. But, does it mean anything? It does.

Walking is a way of getting from one place to another. Walking in the Mass is a sign of our movement. We are going somewhere. We have a destination, and we are on the way. This is what the Second Vatican Council meant when it called the Church the "pilgrim people of God," people on the move, people with a destination in God. Each time we celebrate Mass and engage its movements, we remember who we are. And, even more, we recall our holy destination.

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Caminar

¿Caminas para ir a Misa? Sí; bien que caminas. Entrás caminando y sales caminando. Caminas para recibir la Comunión. Unos cuantos fieles caminan para acercar las ofrendas al sacerdote. El mismo sacerdote y otros ministros caminan y se mueven por el santuario. Durante la Misa, hay más movimiento del que esperábamos. Pero, ¿significa algo todo esto? De hecho, sí.

Caminar es un modo de ir de un sitio a otro. Caminar en la Misa es un signo de nuestro movimiento. Vamos a alguna parte. Tenemos un destino y estamos en camino hacia él. Esto es lo que el Concilio Vaticano Segundo indica cuando llama a la Iglesia "pueblo peregrino de Dios," pueblo en movimiento, pueblo con destino en Dios. Cada vez que celebramos la Misa y ejecutamos sus movimientos, recordamos quiénes somos. Y, más todavía, recordamos nuestro destino de santidad y de vida.

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

September 2, 2012

*In today's Mass, we hear JAMES urge us:
"Welcome the word...be doers of the word and not hearers only..."*

After hearing the readings for today's celebration of the Mass, how might you, in the next week, "be a doer of the word?" Be specific.

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

September 2, 2012

*En la Misa de hoy, el apóstol Santiago nos urge:
"Reciban la palabra... pero no la escuchen solamente,
hagan lo que les pide la palabra"*

Después de escuchar las lecturas de la Misa de hoy, ¿Cómo podrías, durante la próxima semana, "hacer lo que te pide la palabra?" Por favor especifica.

We pray for . . .

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

"I went to church with several of my friends, and it was so peaceful and serene. At first I would sit there and think, but pretty soon I started to pray with them." Nina, age 22

PRAYER BEGINS JOY AND PEACE

Among the treasures of the Catholic faith are the many forms of prayer and spirituality that have come forth from people seeking to converse and commune with God. Catholics praise and worship God both in private and with others. In prayer, we lift our minds and hearts to the One who created us and sustains us.
