Celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation

In the early church, the Easter Vigil was the only liturgy of the year in which people joined the Church. This was because at Easter we celebrate Christ's victory over death and our sharing in that victory through baptism. The journey during that all-night vigil was a journey from darkness to light, from death to life. This is the journey that new Christians share, as they descend and rise from the waters of baptism, in which they are reborn.

At the Easter Vigil, catechumens are baptized and confirmed; candidates are confirmed. The new Catholics complete their initiation by approaching the Lord's Table for the first time to receive His Body and Blood as full members of the Church at last.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Saints in the Eucharistic Prayers

by Paul Turner

When Catholics pray, we often ask the saints to join us, just as we ask friends and family. Privately, Catholics may pray to a particular saint, but as Mass we address prayers to the Father. Just as the assembly of the faithful on earth prays, the assembly of the saints in heaven joins in. This is especially obvious in the eucharistic prayers that mention saints by name.

The clearest example is Eucharistic Prayer I, which has origins in the fourth century. The first versions of this prayer did not mention any saints, but as devotion increased in subsequent centuries, the names of several saints were added. The name of Mary appeared in the sixth century with her title "Mother of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ" to proclaim a recently defined belief—not that God has a mother, but that Jesus, the Son of Mary, is God. Joseph was included in 1962. The names of the 12 apostles follow—with Paul replacing Judas in the list. For balance, 12 martyrs come next—almost all of them from the early church in Rome.

Later in the prayer more saints are named. John the Baptist and Stephen head the second list as key biblical figures. Matthias, who replaced Judas, is finally mentioned, and 12 more saints to balance the group of 12 earlier in the prayer. This second list includes seven women martyrs. Many priests do not read the whole list of saints in Eucharistic Prayer I; the abridgement is permitted for simplicity.

Other eucharistic prayers name a single saint—for example, the patron of the local church or the one whose feast is being celebrated. Whenever saints are included in the eucharistic prayer, they appear as intercessors who assist and as model imitate.

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Saturday, Oct. 3 at 12:30

Saint Francis of Assisi wrote a canticle of the creatures — an ode to God's living things and a testimony that animals share in Christ's love of all God's creation: "All praise to you, O Lord, for all these brother and sister creatures." All creatures, great and small — of the earth, sky and sea — O, praise God, the author and giver of every gift, who offered his own son to us as the paschal lamb.

Please be sure to bring your pets for a blessing (near the statue of St. Francis on the south side of the church).
