Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Eucharist Liturgy we celebrate each Sunday is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, the wedding feast of the Lamb, described in today's readings.

At the Eucharistic table, all are equal. There must be no division of wealth, race and worship to the Father through the Son and in the Spirit. As the guest must come with his wedding garment, we must come with our hearts and minds prepared to participate fully in the Liturgy.

New Words.Deeper Meaning.Same Mass.

Join us Thursday evening, October 20th at 7PM in the church for an unique experience. We will offer a special demonstration of the new translation of the Mass. All of us will be able to participate and experience the dialogues, prayers and sung acclamations of the new translation that will become effective on November 27th, the first Sunday of Advent. While the demonstration will not actually be a Mass, we will follow the order of the Mass from beginning to end. On this night, we will also display the new Roman Missal that contains all the prayers of the new translation. We hope to see many of you there.

Fr. Jim

Liturgy and LifeLiving A Life of Loving Service

Celebrating the Eucharistic Liturgy and receiving Holy Communion should strengthen us to conform our lives more closely to the example of Christ. As Jesus knelt before his Apostles to wash their feet (see Jn 13), giving them an example of humble service, so must we who bear the name Christian live our lives in service to our brothers and sisters.

To help us in this endeavor, Church Tradition has identified works of mercy. These fourteen practices demand great sacrifice and generosity, but they also draw us more deeply into conformity with the Lord. Focusing on one of these works each week may be a practical way to integrate them into our personal, family, and parish lives.

Corporal Works of Mercy

- ◇ Feeding the hungry
- ◇ Sheltering the homeless
- ◇ Clothing the naked
- ◇ Visiting the sick
- ◇ Visiting the imprisoned
- ◇ Giving drink to the thirsty
- ◇ Burying the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy

- ◇ Converting sinners
- ◇ Instructing the ignorant
- ◇ Advising the doubtful
- ◇ Comforting the sorrowful
- ◇ Bearing wrongs patiently
- ◇ Forgiving injuries
- ◇ Praying for the living and dead

As we grow in conformity to Christ, we see more clearly that all people are made in the image and likeness of God (see Gn 1:26) and so have an inherent value and dignity. By helping to build a more just and compassionate society, we act as Christ's Body in the world.
