St. Florian Church Greeters

How You Can Help

Are you looking for a way to serve our Lord through our church? The ideal friendly congregation begins with effective Greeters who have the gift and grace to express social warmth and will share their time and commit their energy to this ministry. An honest smile and heartfelt handshake given in Christ's name nourish someone's soul or someone's need for more closeness.

Greeters' highest virtue is their willingness to express human kindness. Human kindness is the ultimate act of godliness. It is the most unselfish service we can give to our Lord. A kindhearted greeter and a warm hearted church is a perfect place to be for the Lord. Be a part of this ministry and let us grow together in Christ.

Requirements:

- ◆ The gift and grace to express social warmth.
- ◆ An honest smile.
- ◆ A heartfelt handshake.
- ◆ A willing heart to serve the Lord and others.

Being a Greeter is a wonderful way to be of service to the Lord, our church, and anyone who comes to Mass.

Ministry of Greeters

Friendly men, women, families and teens who enjoy helping others are welcomed to join our ministry of greeters. Please complete the form below.

Holy, Holy, Holy by Paul Turner

Early in the eucharistic prayer at every Mass, we all sing a hymn of praise of God. But it's not just "we all" who are gathered in the church that day. We join a hymn going on in heaven, already being sung by the angels. It is the Holy, Holy, Holy—also known by its Latin title, the Sanctus.

This hymn entered the history of the Mass in the early fifth century, when it quickly took its place within the eucharistic prayer. The Sanctus is one of the parts of the Mass that was set to music in Gregorian chant and then later by some of the great composers of classical music. Partly because of its musical possibilities, the Sanctus was sung by the choir alone at many a Sunday Mass for hundreds of years. Ever since the Second Vatican Council, the Holy, Holy, Holy was returned to the entire assembly, who today would justly feel left out if the choir took the hymn to itself.

The first part of the Sanctus comes from Isaiah 6:3, where the angels are singing to each other about how holy God is. The second part comes from Psalm 118:26, where hosannas ring out to the Son of David. Matthew 21:9 puts this passage on the lips of the crowds who acclaim Jesus on his triumphant entry to Jerusalem on the first Palm Sunday.

The angels say that God is the Lord Saboath, a word that has been rendered in English as "of power and might," but it is better translated as "of hosts." The angels themselves are the "hosts" in question here. They are singing about their own ruler. When we join their song, we acclaim God as our ruler too.

ST. FLORIAN'S MISSION STATEMENT

We are Roman Catholics of prayer, service and long-standing tradition guided by the spirit to meet the direct needs of our parishioners and neighboring communities in a demanding social environment.

We strive to achieve a sense of justice, responsibility, prayerfulness, communication and unity by providing:

- All individuals the opportunity of receiving Sacraments;
- The proper educational environment—spiritually, morally, academically;
- A channel for corporal works of mercy; and
- A time and place for social gathering and fellowship.

Our goals and objectives will be accomplished through encouraging active participation in dialogue, evangelization, stewardship, prayer and love.

We pray for . . .

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY — Oct. 18, 2009

“A Eucharistic celebration for all the missions of the World”

NEXT SUNDAY IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. United with the Catholics of the world at the Table of the Lord, we recommit ourselves to our vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries. Our prayers and Eucharistic celebration next Sunday are directed in a special way toward our brothers and sisters throughout the world who are waiting to hear the joyous “Good News” of Jesus. Our offerings, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will support the work and witness of those who selflessly give up all for the sake of our Lord and His Gospel—the local priests, Religious, and lay catechists who daily provide loving service to the poor and suffering of the Developing World.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.
