Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In his first Letter to the Thessalonians, Paul expresses “thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers.” In the Eucharistic Liturgy, we join with the clergy and the faithful throughout the world to pray for the needs of the Church and the world.

By participating fully in the Liturgy, we offer to God what belongs to God by uniting our prayers, our actions, and our very selves to Christ’s perfect oblation of praise and thanksgiving.

New Words.Deeper Meaning.Same Mass.Liturgy and LifeIt All Comes Back to the Eucharist

Living the Christian life is not easy. “What material food produces in our bodily life, Holy Communion wonderfully achieves in our spiritual life. Communion with the flesh of the risen Christ....preserves, increases, and renews the life of grace received at Baptism. This growth in Christian life needs the nourishment of Eucharistic Communion, the bread for our pilgrimage” (CCC, no. 1392).

And so each Sunday, we return to the eucharistic table, bringing all our efforts of the previous week, the good and the bad, the successes and the failures, the joys and the sorrows. We gather with our brothers and sisters in the Lord and, together with our priest, we join these efforts to the perfect sacrifice of Christ, asking that God will receive what we offer back to him in humble thanksgiving. The Catechism explains it as follows:

The Church which is the Body of Christ participates in the offering of her Head. With him, she herself is offered whole and entire. She unites herself to his intercession with the Father for all men. In the Eucharist the sacrifice of Christ becomes also the sacrifice of the members of his Body. The lives of the faithful, their praise, sufferings, prayer, and work, are united with those of Christ and with his total offering, and so acquire a new value. Christ’s sacrifice present on the altar makes it possible for all generations of Christians to be united with his offering. (CCC, no. 1368)

Then strengthened by Holy Communion, we are once again sent forth into the world to glorify the Lord in our lives.

Please Join Us for a Special Demonstration of the New Translation of the Mass
Thursday, October 20th at 7PM

Join us Thursday evening, October 20th at 7PM in the church for an unique experience. We will offer a special demonstration of the new translation of the Mass. All of us will be able to participate and experience the dialogues, prayers and sung acclamations of the new translation that will become effective on November 27th, the first Sunday of Advent. While the demonstration will not actually be a Mass, we will follow the order of the Mass from beginning to end. On this night, we will also display the new Roman Missal that contains all the prayers of the new translation. We hope to see many of you there.

Fr. Jim

World Mission Sunday

October 22/23, 2011

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Each Sunday at the celebration of the Eucharist, Christ sends us out into the world to share in his mission: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." World Mission Sunday is a universal celebration of this call to mission as it is lived out by the whole Church.

The call to mission is made manifest each day as the Church endeavors to make Christ known to the world. This is done through direct proclama- tion of who Christ is and through the many services that the Church provides in every country throughout the world. Children are educated, the sick are nursed, the elderly and disabled are visited and cared for, adults are given opportunities for faith for- mation, seminarians and religious women and men are given resources to grow spiritually and intellectu- ally, all in the name of Christ.

A commitment to mission strengthens our faith and invigorates parish life. Once we have en- countered Christ and experience the grace of con- version, we are sent as missionary disciples into the world to give witness to Christ. Our responsibility for mission never lessens because "the pilgrim Church on earth is missionary by its very nature." World Mis- sion Sunday is our yearly reminder of how the whole Church shares in the mission of Christ at home and abroad.

Blessed Pope John Paul II reminded us that the Church's mission is "very far from completion." We are called to go beyond the borders of our par- ishes and neighborhoods and reach out to people who still do not know Christ and to those who have abandoned faith in Christ. We are all on mission, and today we pause to reflect on the missionary ef- forts of the Church throughout the world.

Please join me in renewing our commitment to mission as an archdiocese. I ask you to pray for the work of the Pontifical Mission Societies and mis- sionaries throughout the world. I encourage you to promote their work in your parish, in religious educa- tion programs and schools. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to deepen our desire to be on mission and give us the grace to be zealous in spreading our faith. May God bless you and reward you for your generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago
