Year of Sunday Mass

July 2012 - June 2013

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Point

I didn't notice the power and the beauty of so many things in my life, until someone pointed them out. Someone had to call my attention to these good things and summon me to see what had always surrounded me. I saw with new eyes.

In a similar way, John the Baptist points out Jesus to the first disciples. John says, "Look, the Lamb of God. Behold, the Lamb of God, who is already here among us." The same words have become a part of the Mass before Holy Communion, "Behold the Lamb of God. Behold him who takes away the sins of the world." The priest holds up the host and points to the presence of Jesus Christ among us.

We need indications. The things of God are deeply imbedded in our lives, but they may remain unseen. The Mass in its entirety points out the presence of the Redeemer in our lives — the suffering and dying Christ in our struggles, the risen Christ in our sense of new life, the power of Christ in our fragility, and the merciful Christ in our acts of compassion. The Mass points out the Lamb of God who even now is with us.

YEAR OF SUNDAY MASS / YEAR OF FAITH

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Señalar

Nunca noté el poder y la belleza de muchas cosas en mi vida, hasta que alguien me las señaló. Alguien tuvo que llamar mi atención hacia estas cosas buenas y llamarme a descubrir lo que aun siempre me rodeó. Las pude ver con ojos nuevos.

De misma manera, Juan Bautista les señala Jesús a los primeros discípulos. Juan nos dice, "Ahí está el Cordero de Dios. Miren, el Cordero de Dios, que ya está aquí entre nosotros." Sus palabras se han vuelto parte de la misa antes de la Sagrada Comunión, "Éste es el Cordero de Dios, que quita el pecado del mundo." El sacerdote sostiene la hostia y nos indica la presencia de Jesucristo entre nosotros.

Necesitamos indicaciones. Las cosas de Dios están profundamente incorporadas en nuestra vida, pero quedan invisibles. La misa en su totalidad señala la presencia del Redentor en nuestra vida—el Cristo sufriendo y moribundo en nuestras luchas, el Cristo resucitado en nuestro sentido de vida nueva, el poder de Cristo en nuestra fragilidad, y el Cristo misericordioso en nuestros actos de compasión. La misa señala el Cordero de Dios que sigue estando hasta ahora con nosotros.

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

October 21, 2012

All three of today's readings remind us to never become too comfortable in identifying oneself as a victim. Jesus, in his sacrifice on the cross, was God's perfect victim for all of humanity, destroying sin and redeeming us through his death and resurrection.

When I approach the altar and consume Jesus' broken body, am I truly aware of the tremendous sacrifice he made for me on the cross?

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

October 21, 2012

Las tres lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que nunca se debe ser demasiado cómodo en identificarse como una víctima. Jesús, en su sacrificio en la Cruz, era la víctima perfecta de Dios para toda la humanidad, destruyendo el pecado y siendo nuestro redentor a través de su muerte y resurrección.

¿Cuando nos acercamos al altar a consumir el cuerpo de Jesús, estoy verdaderamente consciente del gran sacrificio que hizo por mí en la Cruz?

World Mission Sunday

October 20/21, 2012

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This year, the Church's annual celebration of World Mission Sunday takes on special significance because it occurs during the opening weeks of the Year of Faith, while the Synod on the New Evangelization is taking place in Rome. These three moments are intrinsically connected because all of them are about faith: knowing our faith and sharing it so that we can bring it to bear on every society where the Church has taken root, as well as in places where Christ had yet to be proclaimed, or where faith in Him has grown cold.

It is most fitting that the Sunday liturgy is the setting for our Archdiocesan celebration of World Mission Sunday, because it is participation in Sunday Mass that nourishes us, strengthens us and sends us out on mission to witness to Christ. Through the Church's proclamation of the Word of God and our reception of the Body and Blood of the Lord, we are fortified to live as missionary disciples and take up the work to which Christ call us.

Our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, has reminded us that only Christ can truly fulfill the hopes of all humanity because He alone can "heal, purify and fill all people with his presence." If others are to come to know Christ deeply, we must make "the unfathomable riches of Christ known" be bold and yet humble witness to the difference He makes in our lives.

Our profound communion with Christ through our life in the Church should result in a deepening of faith that is transformed into love. The Pontifical Mission Societies support the missionary evangelization efforts that take place in 1150 dioceses throughout the world. Through their efforts the love of Christ touches the hearts of countless people in every region of the world. I commend the Pontifical Mission Societies to your prayers and ask you to be generous in your support for their missionary outreach.

By participating in the missionary work of the Church, my prayer is that each of us will grow in our ability to proclaim Christ by our lives. Thank you for your concern for the missions. May the Lord abundantly bless you and those you love.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

Election 2012

The Catholic Conference of Illinois is distributing a series of four bulletin inserts for the Election 2012 season. The inserts discuss the political impacts the upcoming election may have on the Catholic Church and the church's official position on moral and ethical dilemmas facing our society. The four inserts will be posted on St. Florian's website <florian.hegewisch.net > of the coming weeks. The schedule and topics for the inserts are as follows:

For the weekends of Oct. 21 -- Moral Clarity
 For the weekends of Oct. 28 and Nov. 4 -- Religious Freedom

While the Catholic Conference of Illinois is non-partisan, the bishops offer a special insight on the positions of moral and ethical clarity which are considered paramount to the Catholic Church. They ask you to pray over these important issues before you cast your ballot on Nov. 6.

Daughter of Isabella Circle 859 will meet on October 30th at 1PM at the St. Columba Social Center. On Sunday, November 11th at the 10:30 Mass at St. Columba, we will celebrate our annual memorial Mass for our deceased members. Do not forget to sign up for the Christmas Party on Nov. 4th at 1PM. Reservations may be made at the meeting or by calling Shirlee at 773-646-4690 or Kay at 773-646-1970 of Bernice at 773-646-7580.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord, Jesus Christ, Shepherd of the souls, who called the apostles to be fishers of men, raise up new apostles in your holy church. Teach them that to serve you is to reign: to possess you is to possess all things. Kindle in the hearts of our people the fire of zeal for souls. Make them eager to spread your kingdom upon earth. Grant them courage to follow you, who are the Way, the Truth, and the Life; who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.
