All Saints Day - Holy Day
Sunday, November 1
Masses at 4:00 PM on Saturday
and 8:00AM, 9:45AM & 11:30AM on Sunday

All Souls Day
Monday, November 2, 2009
Masses at 8:15 AM & 7:00PM

The 7:00 PM mass on All Souls Day will especially remember those who have died this past year at St. Florian. It is important for all of us to be able to celebrate these feasts here in church as a parish family.

During November, the Book of Remembrance will be available for you to write the names of your deceased either before or after Mass throughout November.

We kindly ask that all of our parishioners use the All Souls Day envelope in your packet. Be sure to write the names of the deceased so Masses in memory of them can be celebrated not only during November, but throughout the year. These envelopes may be dropped in the collection basket throughout November. These two feasts that begin the month of November bring a fitting end to mark the final month of the Church year.

All Saints and All Souls

Next Sunday and Monday the Church celebrates two of the most profound liturgical celebrations in our liturgical year: the solemnity of All Saints and the commemoration of all the faithful departed (All Souls). In these two days we proclaim the great mystery of our faith that points us to the heavenly banquet of the Lamb. Over the course of these days, we look to the end of time when all who have been marked with the sign of faith will, we pray, one day join the great host of saints in heaven, eternally gathered around the slain and risen Lamb, singing our hymn of praise and thanks forever.

The solemnity of All Saints honors all those who, we believe, are in the eternal presence of God. It commemorates all those who, in some way, mirrored the Paschal Mystery of Christ in their lives of faith. These are God's holy and faithful ones who lived their faith in profound ways. Some were great leaders of nations; others were holy ministers of the Lord, ordained or professed. Still others were married men or women who lived Christ's Gospel in an exemplary way, or they were single and loved Christ completely. All of them were examples to us of how we should live our faith.

All Souls Day commemorates all those who have died and who, we pray, may one day join the saints in the heavenly kingdom. These are the faithful departed who we pray to God, in his great love and mercy, takes to himself. On this day we pray for all the dead. We pray that God forgives them their sins, and we pray that they be admitted into the banquet of heaven with all the saints, in glory.

Vocation Thoughts - Today in the Gospel the blind man said to Jesus, "Master, I want to see." And Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Are we perhaps blind to our vocation as a priest or religious? For more information contact Fr. Joe Noonan at (312) 751-8298 or jnoonan@archchicago.org. For more information about religious life contact Sr. Elyse Ramirez at 312-534-5240.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter (www.wmmechicago.org) - FALLING IN LOVE IS EASY! But being married is a vocation that takes constant, daily care. Remind your spouse how much you love him or her. A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend gives couples some ways to do just that! The next weekends are Nov. 6-8, or Dec. 4-6, and Feb. 12-14 or Apr. 23-25 2010. For info or reservations, please consult our website or call Kris and Jim at 1-800-442.3554. For Spanish weekends (other dates) call Oscar & Luz at 847-675-2119.

COPING WITH THE HOLIDAYS - As the holidays approach us and you are grieving the death of a loved one, Little Company of Mary Hospital and Health Care Centers, in Evergreen Park, Illinois, extends an invitation of support to you and your family. Please join us for an evening on Wednesday, November 11th at CAFÉ 95 from 7:30PM to 9:30PM. Fr.
