Raising Faith-Filled Kids - One Word at a Time

Comfort

A youngster makes his daily call to his mom after a difficult day in middle school. Mom asks what's wrong, and he mumbles, "Nothing." She makes a mental note to check on him at bedtime and stops on the way home from work to buy the ingredients to make his favorite meal. "Comfort my people," says the Lord. And she does.

A dad notices that his daughter is sad and sitting alone. Her friends left for the mall without her. He asks her to help him with a repair project. On the way to the hardware store, they stop for doughnuts, and he tells her about the day she was baptized and how every family member held her and blessed her tiny forehead. "Comfort my people," says the Lord. And he does.

Our children need our presence. Notice and respond.

— Tom McGrath

Criando hijos creyentes - una palabra a la vez

Consolar

Un niño llama a su mamá después de un día difícil en la escuela intermedia. La mamá le pregunta qué le pasa y él murmura: "Nada". Ella toma nota mentalmente de hablar con él antes de dormir y, en el camino a casa, se detiene a comprar los ingredientes necesarios para prepararle su comida favorita. "Consuelen a mi pueblo", dice el Señor. Y ella así lo hace.

Un papá se da cuenta que su hija está sentada sola y triste. Sus amigos se fueron al centro comercial sin ella. Él le pide que le ayude a arreglar unas cosas. En el camino a la ferretería, se detienen a comprar donas y él le cuenta sobre el día en que la bautizaron y cómo todos los miembros de la familia la sostuvieron en brazos y le bendijeron la frente. "Consuelen a mi pueblo", dice el Señor. Y él así lo hace.

Nuestros hijos necesitan que estemos presentes. Presten atención y actúen.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Rite of Christian Initiation

Faith is a lifelong journey, and the RCIA is a parish journey designed to assist individuals who wish to strengthen their relationship with God.

RCIA is an acronym for Right of Christian Initiation for Adults and provides for a variety of spiritual needs. The make-up of a typical RCIA class is as follows:

- ❖ Adults who have never been baptized in any church or people who are members of a non-Christian religion.
- ❖ Adults who have been baptized in a Protestant Church but no longer are practising members of that church.
- ❖ Adults who have been baptized as Roman Catholics, but who at some point stopped practicing their Catholic faith (Many of these folks would like to return to the Church or to be instructed for the reception of the sacraments, but just don't know what to do.)
- ❖ Adult Catholics who wish to renew their faith commitment and are seeking an experience of community.

For information and guidance, kindly see Peg Gadus in church or call the rectory at 773-646-4877. We hope to hear from many of you.
