All Saints Day
Monday, November 1, 2010
Mass at 8:15AM

All Souls Day
Tuesday, November 2, 2010
Masses at 8:15AM & 7:00PM

The 7:00 PM mass on All Souls Day will especially remember those who have died this past year at St. Florian. It is important for all of us to be able to celebrate these feasts here in church as a parish family.

During November, the Book of Remembrance will be available for you to write the names of your deceased either before or after Mass throughout November.

We kindly ask that all of our parishioners use the All Souls Day envelope in their packet. Be sure to write the names of the deceased so Masses in memory of them can be celebrated not only during November, but throughout the year. These envelopes may be dropped in the collection basket throughout November. These two feasts that begin the month of November bring a fitting end to mark the final month of the Church year.

Praying for the Holy Souls in Purgatory

On Tuesday, Nov. 2nd we commemorate the Faithful Departed. This Feast of All Souls is rooted in the Church's strong connection that we, the living, have a serious responsibility in love to accompany with prayer those who have died but must yet complete the purification process every human being needs to be able to dwell in the all-encompassing love of God.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that "death puts an end to human life as the time open to either accepting or rejecting the divine grace manifested in Christ. After death the holy souls undergo purification, as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven." After all, humanity is bound together by the common mortality in which Christ Jesus came to share. With us He died, so that in Him we might rise to everlasting life. Let us learn from those who have gone before us so we may live well and die well. Let us accompany them on their journey with love and prayer.

St Augustine assures us: "It cannot be doubted that the prayers of the Church relieve the holy souls, and move God to trust them with more clemency that twice sins deserve."

May the angels lead us in the paradise; may the martyrs come to welcome us and lead us into the holy city Jerusalem.

Amen (In Paradisum)

Please remember in your hearts and prayers those who have died this past year . . .

The Book of the Names of the Dead

During the month of November, the Church prays especially for the souls of those who have gone before us in faith. The month begins with a special Mass of the Dead, on the commemoration of all the faithful departed (All Souls Day on November 2), in which we remember all those in the parish who have died in the past year.

Throughout the month, The Book of the Names of the Dead may be displayed—a book which contains the names of those who have died, especially in the recent past. This book has its origins in the ancient necrologies (“list of the dead”) kept in many monasteries and other religious houses.

In a way, this practice of having a parish book of the dead—a parish necrology—is a powerful expression of our Christian faith regarding death. Recall the practice in which a saint’s feast day is determined by the date of his or her death—their Dies Natalis, or “day of birth” - the day they are birthed into the new and eternal life of the kingdom.

Our faith proclaims that death is nothing of which to be afraid. It is nothing of which to be afraid because our Master had gone there before us and, we proclaim, has conquered death. Rather than fearing death, we proclaim that it is our entrance into the great, eternal banquet feast of the Lamb.

If your parish has the custom of displaying The Book of the Names of the Dead, be sure to visit it this month. Look through the names recorded in it, if you are able. Pray for those whose names are listed there.

Another Amazing Year for Florian Fest!

The sun came out along with the crowds! Once again we are very pleased to announce great success! The net profit for our Fest and raffle totaled $31,133! The proceeds will greatly benefit both our school and parish. We've received many favorable comments about the Fest — feel free to give us a call or drop a note in the collection basket with your thoughts about the day.

Thanks to all who supported the Fest and enjoyed the day with family and friends. We also thank our Planning Committee and all of our volunteers who worked at the Fest. Special thanks to our sponsors for their monetary donations and thanks also to all of you who donated raffle prizes. If you're out shopping and see an item that would make a great prize for our next Fest (or Brunch) feel free to drop off any items at the Rectory and we'll store them. Thank you again to everyone!

Thank You
