Year of the Sacraments

Pope Francis' Vision of Healing and Communion

July 2014 - June 2015

Year of Sacraments • One Word at a Time

Cry

One of the most heart-felt Psalm-prayers of a sick person reads, "I cry at night before you. Let my prayer come into your presence. O turn your ear to my cry."

(Psalm 88:2–3) And, indeed, God does hear the cry of the poor sick person. The Anointing of the Sick is the sacramental assurance that God walks with us in our weakness and illness.

Those among us who are sick cry out to God, and they also cry out to us. When we celebrate the Anointing of the Sick with them, we assure them that we also walk with them. In our accompaniment of the sick, we follow Pope Francis, who urges us never to discard anyone, especially the poor, the sick, and the elderly. Our participation in this sacrament means that we hear their cry and affirm their value and dignity, especially in their vulnerability.

Año De Los Sacramentos • De Palabra En Palabra

Clamar

Uno de los salmos más sinceros de una persona enferma dice: "Día y noche clamo a ti. Llegue hasta ti mi oración, inclina el oído a mi clamor" (Salmo 88:2–3). Y, en efecto, Dios escucha el clamor de la pobre persona enferma. La Unción de los Enfermos es la garantía sacramental de que Dios camina con nosotros en nuestra debilidad y enfermedad.

Aquellos que entre nosotros se encuentran enfermos claman a Dios y también claman a nosotros. Cuando celebramos con ellos la Unción de los Enfermos, les aseguramos que también nosotros caminamos con ellos. En nuestro acompañamiento, seguimos al Papa Francisco que nos incita a no despreciar nunca a nadie, especialmente a los pobres, los enfermos y los ancianos. Nuestra participación en este sacramento significa que oímos su clamor y afirmamos su valor y su dignidad, especialmente en su vulnerabilidad.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

We are Roman Catholics of prayer, service and long-standing tradition guided by the spirit to meet the direct needs of our parishioners and neighboring community in a demanding social environment. We strive to achieve a sense of justice, responsibility, prayerfulness, communication and unity by providing:

- All individuals the opportunity of receiving sacraments
- The proper educational environment - spiritually, morally, academically
- A channel for corporal works of mercy
- A time and place for social gathering and fellowship

Our goals and objectives will be accomplished through encouraging active participation in dialogue, evangelization, stewardship, prayer and love.
