In Sure and Certain Hope — Preparing a Catholic Funeral

Since November is the month of All Souls, here are some topics concerning the death of a loved one. We hope this helps clarify any uncertainties on these subjects.

Cremation

The Church prefers to bury the body of the deceased in consecrated ground.

For a variety of reasons, some people may prefer to have the body of the deceased cremated before it is buried. This is allowed, as long as there is no intentional denial of the final Resurrection of the body.

The burial or inurnment in a cemetery, mausoleum, or columbarium should occur as soon as possible after the Funeral Mass, so that the cremated remains of the body are not kept in the funeral home or family home. Out of respect for the body, the Church does not permit the cremated remains of the body to be scattered over water or some favorite place. Cremated remains are to be given the same respect as the body they were.

Care for Miscarriages

All life is sacred and the remains of fetuses or stillborns are to be given reverent Christian burial, preferably in a Catholic cemetery.

The Chaplain's Office at Catholic hospitals works closely with families in preparing such burials by contacting a funeral director when necessary as well as the parish of the family involved. When these burials are not handled directly through Catholic hospitals, families should make arrangements with a local funeral director.

Amputated Extremities

Amputated extremities of Catholics are to be given reverent Christian burial. The local funeral director should be contacted in dealing with these situations. Assistance is also available through the Office of Catholic Cemeteries.

Remembering Our Loved Ones

The month of November is one of sobriety when we remember those who have gone before us. It is our spirit that will live on in those we love.

During the month of November our Book of Remembrance will be present in the church where the names of our deceased can be written and prayed for. Please come forward and inscribe the names of your deceased.

We also ask that everyone uses the All Souls Day envelope found in your packet. Simply write the names of the deceased so Masses in memory of them can be celebrated not only throughout the month of November, but during the year as well. The envelopes may be dropped in the collection basket through Thanksgiving. We also encourage you to light a votive candle and say a prayer for your loved ones.

As a reminder, you may remember those who have died in other ways as well: such as our Tree of Life, our intentions for Masses, an offering for our tabernacle candle or for the bread and wine. Please call the Rectory to make arrangements or if you have any questions.

Happy are those who have died in the Lord.
Let them rest from their labors,
for their good deeds
go with them.

-Rev 14:13

ST. FLORIAN'S MISSION STATEMENT

We are Roman Catholics of prayer, service and long-standing tradition guided by the spirit to meet the direct needs of our parishioners and neighboring communities in a demanding social environment.

We strive to achieve a sense of justice, responsibility, prayerfulness, communication and unity by providing:

- All individuals the opportunity of receiving Sacraments;
- The proper educational environment—spiritually, morally, academically;
- A channel for corporal works of mercy; and
- A time and place for social gathering and fellowship.

Our goals and objectives will be accomplished through encouraging active participation in dialogue, evangelization, stewardship, prayer and love.

A Catholic Cemetery . . .

A Place of Remembrance

Reverend Tim Lindenfelser—Diocese of St. Augustine

Clothes, homes, and all material objects are left behind. Our white smiles, perfect noses, and our physical attributes turn to dust. Catholic Cemeteries remind us to live our lives to the fullest—working toward the things that last.

Love is eternal and God faithful.

We shed tears and tell stories. We pray for mercy and celebrate the lives of those who have died. We remember how they loved us. We remember what they did for us.

Love is eternal and God faithful.

As we remember our brothers and sisters who sleep in Christ, may they know our love and our forgiveness. May they help us to love God and keep us awake so that we never forget what lasts forever.

Love is eternal and God faithful.

National Elections

Dear God,

We cherish our rights in this country.
Help us to remember always that rights are meaningless without responsibilities.
When we vote in our national elections this year,
inspire our consciences in our choices for leaders.
Remind us that more money in our pockets cannot compensate neglect of the common good.
Guide us to choose our leaders
not based image, voice, polish or party,
but upon how well the chosen leader will govern according to your will.
May we choose a leader, most of all,
who will act responsibly to protect the rights
of those most helpless and unprotected.

Amen.
