Year of Strong Catholic Parents

July 2013 - June 2014

Raising Faith-Filled Kids - One Word at a Time

Remember

In Together magazine, John Dumschat recalls the day he left his house in a rage. As dinner time neared, he was reluctant to bring such anger back home. He wrote, "We have a custom of beginning meals by holding hands to say grace. The rage still simmered, but this was our custom. All eyes focused on me, the father. I reached out and we all joined hands. We felt a profound sense of healing and peace the moment our hands linked. The anger was gone, replaced by the love that gives our family its existence."

Notice three things: They had a customary way of saying grace. Christ's peace flowed from one person to another as they prayed. Their family ritual helped them all remember who they were and what mattered most. Foster family customs in your home.

— Tom McGrath

Criando hijos creyentes - una palabra a la vez

Recordar

En la revista Together (Juntos), John Dumschat recuerda el día en que salió furioso de la casa. A medida que se acercaba la hora de la cena, se negaba a llevar esa furia de nuevo a su hogar. Escribió:

"Tenemos la costumbre de tomarnos de las manos antes de comer para bendecir la mesa. Todavía no me había calmado pero esa era nuestra costumbre. Todas las miradas estaban sobre mí, el padre. Me acerqué y nos tomamos de las manos. Todos tuvimos una sensación de paz y sanación cuando unimos las manos. La ira desapareció y, en su lugar, sentimos el amor que da vida a nuestra familia".

Presten atención a tres cosas: Tenían una manera habitual de bendecir la comida. La paz de Cristo fluyó de una persona a otra mientras rezaban. El ritual familiar los ayudó a recordar quiénes eran y qué era lo más importante. Fomenten las costumbres familiares en sus hogares.

— Tom McGrath

The Book of the Names of the Dead

During the month of November, the Church prays especially for the souls of those who have gone before us in faith. The month begins with a special Mass of the Dead, on the commemoration of all the faithful departed, in which we remember all those in the parish who have died in the past year.

Throughout the month, The Book of the Names of the Dead may be displayed—a book which contains the names of those who have died, especially in the recent past. This book has its origins in the ancient necrologies (“list of the dead”) kept in many monasteries and other religious houses.

Our faith proclaims that death is nothing of which to be afraid. It is nothing of which to be afraid because our Master had gone there before us and, we proclaim, has conquered death. Rather than fearing death, we proclaim that it is our entrance into the great, eternal banquet feast of the Lamb.

We are in need of a volunteer to dust and vacuum the Sanctuary of the Church once a week. It takes approximately an hour. If you are interested, please call Peg at (773) 646-4877 after 2:00pm Monday through Thursday.

Vocation Thoughts: November 3, 2013

31st Sunday In Ordinary Time

Jesus approaches us and wants to come stay with us. Are you ready to change your life, like Zacchaeus, to follow Jesus? (Luke 19:1-10) If you have ever considered a vocation to the priesthood, contact Fr. Francis Bitterman, fbitterman@archchicago.org or at 312-534-8298, or go to www.ChicagoPriest.com. For information on religious life contact Sr. Elyse Ramirez, OP at 312-534-5240 or eramirez@archchicago.org, and for the Permanent Diaconate program contact Deacon Bob Puhala at 847-837-4564 or bpuhala@usml.edu

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.
