Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Eucharistic Fast and Gum

When preparing to receive Holy Communion, one must fast from food and drink (except water) one hour before receiving Communion. This includes refraining from coffee, pop, candy, and GUM.

Please do not dispose of your A-B-C (already-been-chewed) GUM by sticking it under the pews, in the pew book racks or dropping it on the floor or carpet. Those who clean the Church spend a great deal of time scraping GUM from the floors and pews.

Parishioners have gotten GUM stuck to their clothing and shoes. Please help us keep the Church clean by not bringing candy, GUM, food or drink into the Church. Thank you.

Archdiocese of Chicago

October 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has come the aid of communities nationwide for over forty years in an effort to eradicate poverty. During World Youth Day, on July 25th, 2013, Pope Francis told us, "Never tire of working for a more just world, marked by greater solidarity." The CCHD puts these words into action by funding housing, education, the development of job opportunities and other social-justice initiatives.

Projects supported by the CCHD go beyond providing for basic needs. They work to build healthy, sustainable futures for communities. For example, for several years now, the Precious Blood Ministry of Reconciliation (PBMR) has been transforming the way communities engage in restorative justice practices to develop a culture of nonviolence in Chicago's South Side. The PBMR has also developed a strong leadership model for at-risk youth to facilitate peace circles in areas of high conflict. In addition, the PBMR assists families to address unjust legislation surrounding juveniles without parole. The heart of the PBMR is about building human relationships; it carries on Christ's mission "to bring glad tidings to the poor... liberty to captives... sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free" (Luke 4:18).

This collection is the primary source of funding for the CCHD's anti-poverty grants and education programs. Collection funds offer new hope each year to those living in poverty throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago. Fifty percent of the collection's proceeds stay here in our archdiocese to fight poverty in our communities and defend the dignity of our neighbors, and the other 50 percent goes to funding programs nationwide.

This year, the Appeal Weekend for the CCHD is November 15-16, and the Collection Weekend is November 22-23. Please help us defend human dignity and show Christ's charity to those in need. To learn more about the CCHD in the Archdiocese of Chicago and the groups it funds, please visit www.ChicagoPeaceAndJustice.org/CCHD. Thank you for your generosity and for your lives of faith. You and those you love are in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

Year of the Sacraments

Pope Francis' Vision of Healing and Communion

July 2014 - June 2015

Year of Sacraments • One Word at a Time

Weep

In her funeral liturgies, the Church encourages us to walk and weep as Jesus did at the death of his friend Lazarus. We walk and weep when we bring the remains of our loved ones to the church for the funeral Mass and when we bear those remains to their final resting place.

Our grieving and our tears do not belie our faith in the power of the Risen Lord. No, when we weep, we express our sense of loss and the sorrowful break that death imposes on us. More importantly, our mourning speaks to the incompleteness of our journey homeward to God. This grieving is like all the sacraments that are celebrated while we are on the way but not yet arrived. And so our sorrow then becomes a seed of hope and expectation that the Lord, forever true to his promise, will come with glory for his people and complete our journey.

Año De Los Sacramentos • De Palabra En Palabra

Llorar

En sus liturgias fúnebres, la Iglesia nos alienta a caminar y llorar como Jesús lo hizo ante la muerte de su amigo Lázaro. Caminamos y lloramos cuando llevamos los restos de nuestros seres queridos a la iglesia para la misa fúnebre y cuando los colocamos en su lugar final de reposo.

Nuestro lamento y nuestras lágrimas no contradicen a nuestra fe en el poder del Señor resucitado. No, cuando lloramos, expresamos nuestro sentimiento de pérdida y la penosa separación que la muerte nos impone. Aún más importante, nuestro lamento nos recuerda que nuestro camino de regreso a Dios está incompleto. Este lamento es como todos los sacramentos que se celebran mientras estamos en camino y aún no hemos llegado al destino. Y así nuestra pena, entonces, se convierte en una semilla de esperanza y expectativa de que el Señor, siempre fiel a su promesa, vendrá con gloria por su pueblo y completará nuestro camino.

MISSION STATEMENT of ST. FLORIAN PARISH

We are Roman Catholics of prayer, service and long-standing tradition guided by the spirit to meet the direct needs of our parishioners and neighboring community in a demanding social environment. We strive to achieve a sense of justice, responsibility, prayerfulness, communication and unity by providing:

- All individuals the opportunity of receiving sacraments
- The proper educational environment - spiritually, morally, academically
- A channel for corporal works of mercy
- A time and place for social gathering and fellowship

Our goals and objectives will be accomplished through encouraging active participation in dialogue, evangelization, stewardship, prayer and love.
