New Beginnings

A note of thanks to so many parishioners who enjoyed the three sessions of New Beginnings. Many of you shared favorable comments, both verbal and written. Here is a sampling from the parishioners who attended and what they liked about New Beginnings.

- Togetherness of Catholics
- It confirmed my faith and Christian culture.
- I was very informed about my religion.
- Warm sessions; not preachy, which was important; never felt guilty, only reflections and thoughts about what I will do.
- I felt good and it brought me closer to God.
- I have been praying more and helped me to talk more about God and church.
- The camaraderie with my fellow parishioners
- Listening to Allen Simmons, who was well prepared and full of the Holy Spirit
- Enjoyed getting together with fellow parishioners
- Made me more aware of the ministries within the Church.
- Allen Simmons was great; he was very thorough and an excellent speaker and very enlightening.
- It is good to talk about this stuff.
- The fact that it actually happened; we need to do something to move out of our comfort zone.
- It gave me much to think about
- Excellent; it should have started years ago.
- Information was excellent; short format was great for all schedules.
- Very well done; found out things I didn't even know.
- Seeing so many people and the youth coming to the meeting
- I liked talking about what it means to be Catholic.
- Talking to the group about what the church can do
- I simply like that the program was offered, plus the chocolate chip cookies.
- It was kept short and on time.
- Meeting after mass with parishioners
- Everything; teaching so that the average person could understand you; dialogue among tables
- We probably could use a few more sessions
- Do something like this every year.
- You guys did a great job
- We'd love to figure out how to get more involved.

St. Columba Parish will host a community Thanksgiving dinner on Thanksgiving Day, November 27. The dinner will be open to all in the community who are financially disadvantaged along with those who would be alone on the holiday or for those physically unable to prepare a traditional meal for their families. This community dinner is meant to be shared by friends and neighbors, as was the first Thanksgiving dinner. It really is a fun and heartfelt event.

A traditional dinner (catered by Steve's) will be served from noon until 2:00 p.m. in the Social Center. The menu includes turkey and stuffing, ham, mashed potatoes, salad, vegetable, rolls and butter, pumpkin pie, and coffee, milk and pop.

A Place to Pray

Deacon Glen Tylutki—Archdiocese of Chicago

"The church has always urged us to pray for the dead. She invites believers to regard the mystery of death not as the last word on human fate but as a journey toward eternal life."

Servant of God, Pope John Paul II

Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God. It comes from the sincerity of a heart filled with humbleness and contriteness realizing that we are a broken, imperfect and sinful people. But because of our baptism we are a "special people" who can call God—Father. Therefore, we can say . . .

Merciful Father,
hear our prayer and console us,
as we renew our faith in Your Son,
whom You raised from the dead, strengthen our hope
that all our departed brother and sisters
will share His resurrection, who lives and reigns
with You and the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever.

Amen

Catholic Campaign for Human Development
Nov. 22-23, 2008

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

For over thirty-eight years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has been a living example of our Church's social teaching. This year, CCHD is funding twenty-one organizations that work to address the root causes of poverty with seniors, youth, immigrants, people with disabilities and low-wage workers in Cook and Lake Counties.

Please make a special effort during this Thanksgiving season to give generously to the CCHD's collection November 22-23. Your contribution will enable the poor to achieve greater dignity and to build God's kingdom of justice and peace.

One hundred percent of the CCHD budget comes from individual donations - of any size - just like yours. Your contribution does make a powerful difference. May God bless you for your support of the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

You and those you love are in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Faternally yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
