Raising Faith-Filled Kids - One Word at a Time

Gather

This is the time of year when families begin to gather. Thanksgiving is coming, followed by all the many celebrations of Christmas and New Year. Here are a few tips on how best to gather with your extended family: Be a little more welcoming, a little more understanding. Be a little more forgiving and a lot more compassionate. Ask questions about what others care about and then listen more than you talk. Tell the guests at least one reason you are grateful they are in your life. Before you eat, reflect and pray together.

Families are often on their best behavior when guests are present. So remember what Jesus said, "Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them." Honor your guests as you would Jesus.

—Tom McGrath

Criando hijos creyentes - una palabra a la vez

Reunirse

Esta es la época del año en que las familias comienzan reunirse. Se acerca el día de Acción de Gracias y, después, todos los festejos de Navidad y Año Nuevo. Aquí tienen algunas ideas sobre cuál es la mejor manera de reunirse con toda la familia: hay que ser un poco más hospitalarios, un poco más comprensivos. Hay que ser un poco más indulgentes y mucho más compasivos. Hay que preguntar más sobre lo que interesa a los demás, hay que hablar menos y escuchar más. Hay que decir a los invitados por lo menos un motivo por el que están agradecidos de que formen parte de su vida. Antes de comer, reflexionen y recen juntos.

Muchas veces las familias se portan mejor cuando hay invitados. Así que recuerden lo que dijo Jesús: "Porque donde hay dos o tres reunidos en mi nombre, yo estoy allí, en medio de ellos". Honren a sus invitados como honrarían a Jesús.

—Tom McGrath

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

November 2013

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) collection is the primary source of funding for the CCHD's anti-poverty grants and education programs. Committed to addressing the root causes of poverty, the CCHD has provided access to invaluable resources for those who struggle in poverty and has made positive impacts throughout Chicago and the United States. The organizations the CCHD supports coordinate programs that help to change the lives of those less fortunate by creating jobs, providing training for adults and educational opportunities for children, and helping to stabilize neighborhoods. Inspired by Catholic social teachings, the CCHD's mission is respect for human life from conception to natural death, recognizing that all human beings are created in the image and likeness of God and are endowed with certain inalienable rights.

Organizations assisted by the CCHD include the Latino Union of Chicago. Started in 2000 by immigrants, the Latino Union has worked to ensure that low-income immigrant workers have the tools to improve economic and social conditions for themselves and their communities by moving legislation and developing leaders in our communities who arise to break the cycle of poverty and injustice. Earlier this year, the Latino Union led the effort to pass the new wage-theft ordinance in Illinois. For their witness to the social teachings of the Church, which embody Christ's love for the poor, the Latino Union was recognized nationally by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops with the 2013 Sister Margaret Cafferty Development of People Award. For more information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and the groups it funds, please visit www.chicagopeaceandjustice.org/echd or visit www.usccb.org and search "CCHD Collection Resources."

"Help us get poverty "off the map," and support the CCHD in the upcoming collection on November 23 and 24. Please remember that 50 percent of the collection's proceeds stay here in our archdiocese to fight poverty in our own communities and to defend the dignity of our neighbors.

Thank you for your generous consideration of this important call to help our brothers and sisters in need, especially during this season in which we give thanks to God for our many blessings. You and those you love are in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Holiday Vendor & Book Sale

The sale will be held on Saturday November 30th at the St. Florian School Gymnasium (131st and S. Houston) from 11:00am to 5:00pm. MISSION STATEMENT of ST. FLORIAN PARISH

We are Roman Catholics of prayer, service and long-standing tradition guided by the spirit to meet the direct needs of our parishioners and neighboring community in a demanding social environment. We strive to achieve a sense of justice, responsibility, prayerfulness, communication and unity by providing:

- All individuals the opportunity of receiving sacraments
- The proper educational environment - spiritually, morally, academically
- A channel for corporal works of mercy
- A time and place for social gathering and fellowship

Our goals and objectives will be accomplished through encouraging active participation in dialogue, evangelization, stewardship, prayer and love.
