Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

How Can You Help Our Troops?

St. Florian School is seeking the following items to send to troops overseas. Please arrange for a possible drop off or pick up time by calling the school at (773) 646-2868.

- ❖ Flavored drink mixes (Like Crystal Light packets)
- ❖ Chapstick
- ❖ Socks
- ❖ Protein powder and bars
- ❖ Beef jerky
- ❖ Foil or paper packaged snacks (left over Halloween candy)
- ❖ Brand name toiletries (not hotel samples)
- ❖ Flash drives, memory cards, iTunes gift cards
- ❖ DVDs, cards, games, etc.

Joseph in the Eucharistic Prayer

Paul Turner

The name of St. Joseph has been added to Eucharistic Prayers II, III, and IV. Joseph was not mentioned in any Eucharistic prayer until 1962, when Pope John the XXIII added his name to the Roman Canon, the only Eucharistic prayer in use at the time (now known as Eucharistic Prayer I). Pope John was touched by the appeal of Bishop Peter Cule from Yugoslavia, a survivor of a Communist concentration camp.

St. Joseph became popular fairly late in church history. Artistic representations in the past consistently depicted him as an older man, near the edges of the nativity scene, out of the way of the main figures. He appeared too old to be the father of the child, too inessential to occupy central space. However, devotion to this obedient servant of God increased in recent centuries.

As the new Eucharistic prayers were developed after the Second Vatican Council, decisions had to be made about their structure and content. The Roman Canon included a long list of saints, many from Rome. An opinion prevailed that the list should be shortened and considerably minimized in the other Eucharistic prayers. This was partly because of the original sources of Eucharistic prayers, which did not mention saints; the great number of saints throughout the Catholic world, who could not possibly be represented in one prayer; and ecumenical considerations, since other Christians do not invoke the saints as Catholics do. Thus, the fewer number of saints' names was intended to express historical authenticity, restraint, and ecumenical sensitivity.

Adding the name of St. Joseph is the first change to the Latin text of the Roman Missal after the revised English translation was published in 2011. The prayer of the Catholic church continually undergoes refinement.

Year of the Sacraments

Pope Francis' Vision of Healing and Communion

July 2014 - June 2015

Year of Sacraments • One Word at a Time

Follow

At Baptism, Saint Paul says we died with Christ to rise with him. We went down with him into the waters that symbolized our death, and then we rose up with him to new life. We follow Christ into the tomb, and we follow him into a resurrection like his. Our following at Baptism was sacramental, in sign and symbol. One day, we will follow him in the reality of our own death, and we will pass-over with him to the fullness of life. Now, at the moment of our death, it is no longer in sign and symbol but rather in the realities they signify.

We hear the words of Jesus: "Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also." (Jn 12:26) We do follow him in the sacraments, with our daily discipleship, and—at the end of our lives—in trusting surrender.

Año De Los Sacramentos • De Palabra En Palabra

Seguir

En el Bautismo, san Pablo dice que morimos con Cristo para resucitar con él. Des-cendimos en las aguas con él como símbolo de nuestra muerte y luego resucitamos con él a la nueva vida. Seguimos a Cristo hasta la tumba y lo seguimos hasta una resurrección como la suya. Nuestro seguimiento en el Bautismo fue sacramental, como signo y símbolo. Un día, lo seguiremos en la realidad de nuestra propia muerte y alcanzaremos con él la plenitud de nuestra vida. Ahora, en la hora de nuestra muerte, el significado ya no es un signo y un símbolo sino la realidad.

Escuchamos las palabras de Jesús: "El que quiera servirme, que me siga, y donde yo estoy estará mi servidor" (Juan 12:26). Lo seguimos en los sacramentos con nuestro discipulado diario y, al final de nuestra vida, nos entregamos con plena confianza.

MISSION STATEMENT of ST. FLORIAN PARISH

We are Roman Catholics of prayer, service and long-standing tradition guided by the spirit to meet the direct needs of our parishioners and neighboring community in a demanding social environment. We strive to achieve a sense of justice, responsibility, prayerfulness, communication and unity by providing:

- All individuals the opportunity of receiving sacraments
- The proper educational environment - spiritually, morally, academically
- A channel for corporal works of mercy
- A time and place for social gathering and fellowship

Our goals and objectives will be accomplished through encouraging active participation in dialogue, evangelization, stewardship, prayer and love.
