Raising Faith-Filled Kids - One Word at a Time

Eat

For ancient Jews, sharing a meal was a sacred act because it involved giving thanks to God. Today, family meals can prepare us to gather at the table of the Lord, but the reverse is true as well. Actively celebrating the Mass prepares us for a deeper connection and joy at our own kitchen tables. Remember, Jesus' gift of his Real Presence invites our real presence as well.

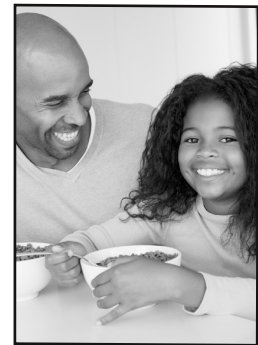

Beyond regular attendance at Mass, here are six tips for making your meals a blessing for you and your family: 1. Bring your real presence (no distractions). 2. Be grateful. 3. Pray together. 4. Remember those less fortunate. 5. Connect by listening and sharing. 6. Thank the cook and help clean up!

— Tom McGrath

Criando hijos creyentes - una palabra a la vez

Comer

Para los antiguos judíos, compartir los alimentos era un acto sagrado porque implicaba dar gracias a Dios. Hoy en día, las comidas familiares nos preparan para juntarnos a la mesa del Señor aunque lo contrario también es verdad. Celebrar la misa de manera activa nos prepara para un vínculo y una dicha más intensos en la mesa de la cocina. Recuerden: el don de la Presencia Real de Jesús invita a nuestra presencia real también.

Más allá de asistir a misa con regularidad, aquí tienen seis ideas para hacer que las comidas sean una bendición para ustedes y sus familias: 1. Traigan su presencia real (sin distracciones). 2. Sean agradecidos. 3. Recen juntos. 4. Recuerden a los menos afortunados. 5. Conéctense, escuchen y compartan. 6. Agradézcan a quien cocinó y ¡ayuden a limpiar!

— Tom McGrath

SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST THE KING

Though the theme of Christ's kingship is ancient, this solemnity dates back only to the nineteenth century. Before the calendar reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the solemnity provided a Catholic answer to the Protestants' late October celebration of Reformation Sunday. Now the day marks the last Sunday of the liturgical year. Developing themes of the kingship of Christ, the triumph of the Cross and God's judgment on our sin, this liturgy celebrates Jesus as Lord of love, revealing God's love for all people and calling his followers to live in that love.

For what are we praying?

Almighty and merciful God, you break the power of evil and make all things new in your Son Jesus Christ, the King of the universe. May all in heaven and earth acclaim your glory and never cease to praise you.
