First Sunday of Advent

Although each Advent marks the beginning of a new liturgical year, this Advent marks the beginning of a renewed moment in the church's liturgical life. In Advent, we prepare for the coming of Christ at Christmas and at the end of time. So should we intensify our participation in the Eucharistic Liturgy to prepare for the coming of Christ into our hearts in the Holy Eucharist.

Advent Wreath and Blessing

Lord God, your Church joyfully awaits the coming of its Savior, who enlightens our hearts and dispels the darkness of ignorance and sin . . .

Pour forth your blessings upon us as we light the candles of this wreath; may their light reflect the splendor of Christ, who is Lord for ever and ever.

—Prayer of Blessing of an Advent Wreath

With these words, the Church hallows the circle of greenery and candles that often marks our liturgical space during Advent. Formed in a circle, an ancient symbol of God who has neither beginning nor end, the wreath proclaims life in the midst of the seeming death of winter. Its candles proclaim that Christ, who is to come again, is the light that no darkness can extinguish. With each week of Advent we light one more candle and the darkness retreats just a bit further.

All of this is to help the Church recall just what and who it is for which we wait during this season: the kingdom of God in its fullness and the coming of the one who will banish all darkness forever.

The above prayer of blessing can be used in your home. As the family gathers on this first Sunday of Advent, bless the Advent wreath.

“The first thing I recommend to you for Advent is to keep yourself in the presence of God deep within your heart, just as the Blessed Virgin before the birth of our Lord, adored him within herself.”

Advent Wreath Year B

Paul Turner

If you are setting up an Advent wreath in your home this year, here is a prayer for the first week of Advent you could say while you light its candle. You may set these before or after a meal, when waking up, before going to bed, or whenever you and the members of your household gather for prayer. Before you say the prayer, read and talk over the Gospel reading you heard at Sunday Mass that week.

Week 1: O God, who asks us to be watchful and alert because we do not know when you will come, let this candle give us light and help us stay awake. At those time when you ask us to act, give us strength to respond at once. Though Christ our Lord.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Lord, Jesus Christ, Shepherd of the souls, who called the apostles to be fishers of men, raise up new apostles in your holy church. Teach them that to serve you is to reign: to possess you is to possess all things. Kindle in the hearts of our people the fire of zeal for souls. Make them eager to spread your kingdom upon earth. Grant them courage to follow you, who are the Way, the Truth, and the Life; who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Amen
