2014 ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL BEGINS

"You are the temple of God"
(1 Corinthians 3:16)

The 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal is underway. Many of our parishioners have received a mailing from Cardinal George. He asks that you make a pledge to the 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal. Please respond generously.

The Appeal supports both parish and Archdiocesan ministries. The Appeal funds services that are of great help to ministries here in our parish.

This year, the theme of the Appeal is: You are the temple of God. We are living temples of God and carry His true presence into the world. He calls us to share our gifts with others.

As we contemplate His gifts to us, we should also reflect on our gratitude for these gifts. Your financial support for the work our parish, of our Archdiocese and of the Church throughout the world is, in fact, one way to express our gratitude.

As you review the mailing from Cardinal George, please note the ministries and services funded by the Appeal, including the ones that directly support the work of our parish. Then please give generously. Note that when our parish reaches its goal in pledges, 100% of the additional funds received will be returned to us for use in our parish.

Saints for Our Time

Two extraordinary men who shaped the church and the world in the 20th century will be canonized by Pope Francis. Pope John XXIII and Pope John Paul II will be recognized as saints in ceremonies scheduled April 27th, 2014 at Saint Peter's Basilica.

ST. JOHN XXIII

Angelo Roncalli was born in 1881, in Sotto Il Monte, Italy. His parents were tenant farmers. An excellent student who entered the seminary at 12 years old, at eighteen, he wrote: "Everything I process, my being, life, understanding, will and memory—all were given to me by God, so I belong to him."

At the age of 71, he was elevated to the rank of cardinal. In 1958 he attended the conclave of cardinals to elect a new pope after the death of Pope Pius XII. Never expecting to become pope, as the story is told, he had a return train ticket back to Venice in his pocket, which, of course, he would never use.

Pope John XXIII's major accomplishments include improving ecumenical relations, reforming and revising the liturgy, fostering a greater role for the laity in Church governance, and, his landmark achievement, the convening of Vatican II. He will be remembered also for his humility, warmth and gentle sense of humor. "Anybody can become pope," he once said, "the proof of this is I have become one." Pope John issued eight encyclicals, Pacem in Terris (Peace on Earth) is considered his most important contribution to Church teaching.

Lord Jesus Christ, you are called the Prince of Peace, you are yourself our peace and reconciliation, you so often said, "peace to you," grant us peace. Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice and brotherly love. Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace. Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace. May all peoples of the earth become as brothers and sisters. May longed for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all.

Our school population is multi-cultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Year of Strong Catholic Parents

July 2013 - June 2014

Raising Faith-Filled Kids - One Word at a Time

Believe

You're probably familiar with the phrase, "Seeing is believing." It conveys a "doubting Thomas" brand of suspicion as in "I won't believe it until I see the proof." But Jesus had a different take. He tells us, "Believing is seeing!" The act of believing—that is, opening our hearts and losing our fears—can help us see that something better is possible in our present situation, no matter how dire it may seem. The very act of putting our trust and belief in the power of God opens our eyes to all sorts of possibilities, and that is certainly true in our families. With the eyes of faith, we parents can better see that God is at work in our home, helping us to be faithful, loving, generous, and, sometimes, even wise.

—Tom McGrath

Criando hijos creyentes • una palabra a la vez

Creer

Seguramente le resulte familiar la frase: "Ver para creer". Transmite las palabras propias del escéptico que dice: "No lo creeré hasta ver la prueba". Pero Jesús tenía una frase diferente. Nos dice: "¡Creer es ver!". El acto de creer—es decir, abrir nuestro corazón y dejar atrás nuestros miedos— puede ayudarnos a ver que algo mejor es posible en nuestra situación presente, sin importar cuán terrible nos parezca. El acto mismo de poner nuestra fe y confianza en el poder de Dios, nos abre los ojos a toda clase de posibilidades y eso, sin duda, es verdad en nuestras familias. Con los ojos de la fe, como padres podemos ver mejor cómo Dios está obrando en nuestro hogar, ayudándonos a ser fieles, amorosos, generosos y, a veces, incluso sabios.

—Tom McGrath
