Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Don't forget to put your e-mail address on your envelope.

You only need to do this once. If you have already submitted your email address, you do not need to do it again.

Anyone interested in renting Konsowski Hall,

Year of the Sacraments

Pope Francis' Vision of Healing and Communion

July 2014 - June 2015

Year of Sacraments • One Word at a Time

Stay

Permanecer

“I promise to be true to you in good time sand in bad, in sickness and in health. I will love you and honor you all the days of my life.” This is an impressive promise. In essence, it is a promise to stay with each other, whatever the circumstances of life. This is not an easy promise to make, nor is it an easy promise to keep. For those who enter marriage as more than a human covenant but as a sacrament, the promise takes on special meaning.

When a baptized man and a baptized woman promise in faith to stay with each other, they draw their inspiration and their power from Jesus Christ. “And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age,” he says at the very end of Matthew’s Gospel (28:20). Elsewhere, he says, “I will not leave you orphaned.” (John 14:18) The grace of permanence in marriage is truly a grace, not a human achievement.

monio no como a una simple alianza humana sino como a un sacramento, la promesa tiene un significado especial.

Cuando un hombre y una mujer bautizados prometen permanecer en la fe el uno con el otro, toman su inspiración y su fortaleza de Jesucristo. “Yo estaré con ustedes siempre, hasta el fin del mundo”, dice el Evangelio de Mateo (28:20). En otro pasaje, dice: “No los dejo huérfanos” (Juan 14:18). La gracia de permanencia en el matrimonio es realmente una gracia, no un logro humano.

MISSION STATEMENT of ST. FLORIAN PARISH

We are Roman Catholics of prayer, service and long-standing tradition guided by the spirit to meet the direct needs of our parishioners and neighboring community in a demanding social environment. We strive to achieve a sense of justice, responsibility, prayerfulness, communication and unity by providing:

- All individuals the opportunity of receiving sacraments
- The proper educational environment - spiritually, morally, academically
- A channel for corporal works of mercy
- A time and place for social gathering and fellowship

Our goals and objectives will be accomplished through encouraging active participation in dialogue, evangelization, stewardship, prayer and love.
