Year of Sunday Mass

July 2012 - June 2013

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Go

No one wants to be summarily dispatched or just sent away. "Go. Move on." It's not a nice message. Strangely, it's the last message we get at Sunday Mass. In all the different forms, we are told to go and to move on. "Go forth, the Mass is ended. Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord. Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life. Go in peace." Not only is that the final message of the Mass, for us it's also a welcomed message. We want to go and we need to move on and out.

The Dismissal at the end of Mass is critical. We are entrusted with a mission and a high purpose. We are told to move to the world from which we originally came. We have heard God's Word and shared in the self-sacrificing love of Jesus who has been our Bread of Life. Now, we have a purpose and responsibility. Our mission is to bring and live out what we have celebrated in the Mass. So, we go not only in peace but with joy, determination, and hope.

KNOW THE MASS, ONE WORD AT A TIME

Ir

A nadie le gusta ser despedido, y, menos, ser corrido. "¡Váyanse! ¡Moviéndose!", a nadie le suena a cortesía. Curiosamente, el último mensaje de la Misa dominical suena muy parecido. En todas sus formas, se nos pide que nos vayamos: "Pueden ir en paz", "Anuncien a todos la alegría del Señor resucitado. Pueden ir en paz", "La alegría del Señor sea nuestra fuerza. Pueden ir en paz", "Glorifiquen al Señor con su vida. Pueden ir en paz", "En el nombre del Señor, pueden ir en paz". No sólo es ése el último mensaje de la Misa, sino que para nosotros es un mensaje que recibimos con gusto; lo esperamos. Queremos irnos, salir.

La despedida al término de la Misa es crucial. Se nos confía una misión y un gran propósito. Se nos indica movernos al mundo del cual venimos originalmente. Hemos escuchado la Palabra de Dios y hemos participado en el amor oblativo de Jesús que es nuestro Pan de vida. Ahora, tenemos un propósito y responsabilidad: hacer vida lo que recién hemos celebrado en la Misa. Por lo mismo, no sólo nos vamos en paz, sino con alegría, con determinación y con esperanza.

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

April 28, 2013

5th Sunday of Easter

Jesus says, "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

When I share the same Body and Blood of Jesus with others in my community, how does this re-enforce my connection with them and my call to love them?

Year of Sunday Mass Question of the Week

April 28, 2013

5o Domingo de Pascua

Jesús dice, "Como yo los he amado, así también ámense los unos a los otros".

Cuando comparto con otras personas de mi comunidad el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, ¿de qué manera refuerza esto mi conexión con ellos y mi llamado a amarlos?

We pray for . . .

THERE ARE STILL MASSES AVAILABLE FOR MAY

Have you come to the rectory to make arrangements for your Mass intentions yet? Remember, Mass intentions include our deceased, in thanksgiving, anniversaries of marriages and birthdays, for good health, special intentions, etc. You can personalize your Mass intentions in any way possible.

Mass Intentions

Any Catholic may offer up the Mass in which he or she participates for any good intention. Certainly, graces will accrue in accordance with the intensity of that person's participation and sincerity. However, the custom of requesting a priest to offer the Mass for a specific intention, even when one cannot be physically present at the Mass, is a long-standing tradition in the Church. This is because the Church considers the Mass as the greatest possible prayer of intercession insofar as it is the perfect offering of Christ to the Father by making present the paschal mystery of his death and resurrection. The faithful generally make an offering, called a stipend, to the priest in order to apply the Mass to a specific intention. By making this offering, the faithful, by parting with something that is their own, associate themselves more intimately with Christ who offers himself in the sacred Host, and obtain thereby more abundant fruits. Thus, in normal circumstances, a priest may only accept one stipend for any one Mass even though he may offer up the Mass for several intentions.

Vocation Thoughts

April 28 – Fifth Sunday of Easter

As Revelation tells us in today's reading, God has chosen to dwell with us. How can you best share your gifts to reveal his presence among us in the world? If you think God is calling you to discern a vocation to the priesthood contact Fr. Brian Welter at 312-534-8298 or at bwelter@archchicago.org. Check out www.ChicagoPriest.com. For info on religious life contact Sr. Elyse Ramirez, OP at 312-534-5240 or at eramirez@archchicago.org, and for the Permanent Diaconate program contact Deacon Bob Puhala at 847-837-4562. bpuhala@usml.edu.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

.THANK YOU

St. Florian Athletic Association and a special thanks to the 50th Anniversary Class of 1963 for a most generous donation.

The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland

Baby Bottle Project

In support of the pro-life movement, our church will be participating in the Baby Bottle Project benefiting The Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland. This non-profit organization directly assists mothers and families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material, and spiritual support through counseling, clothing & monetary provisions, prayer, and other aid,

Please return the bottles to the Church no later the weekend of—May 11/12. This is a simple, but crucial fundraising effort for The Women's Centers. Thank you for helping defend life.
