Year of the Sacraments

Pope Francis' Vision of Healing and Communion

July 2014 - June 2015

Year of Sacraments • One Word at a Time

Change

We believe that in the Mass, when the priest invokes the Holy Spirit and repeats the words of Jesus, the elements of bread and wine are changed into the reality of his Body and Blood. In faith, we can affirm that this happens, but we cannot explain with any precision how it happens, as much as we might want to. The how remains a mystery. And there is another important dimension of change that calls for our close attention.

Not only do the elements of bread and wine change, but we who take within ourselves the Body and Blood of the Lord are radically transformed. Jesus says, "Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day." (John 6:54) The Eucharist changes us in the most radical way imaginable, from mortal beings subject to death to children of God raised up to new and eternal life.

Transformar

Nosotros creemos que en la misa, cuando el sacerdote invoca al Espíritu Santo y repite las palabras de Jesús, los elementos del pan y el vino se transforman en la realidad de su Cuerpo y su Sangre. En la fe, podemos afirmar que esto sucede pero no podemos explicar con ninguna precisión cómo sucede, por mucho que lo intentemos. El cómo sigue siendo un misterio. Y hay otra dimensión importante de la transformación que exige nuestra cuidadosa atención.

No solo los elementos del pan y el vino se transforman, sino que nosotros, que llevamos a nuestro interior el Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor, somos transformados radicalmente. Jesús dice: "Quien come mi carne y bebe mi sangre tiene vida eterna y yo lo resucitaré el último día" (Juan 6:54). La Eucaristía nos transforma de la manera más radical que podamos imaginar, de seres humanos sujetos a la muerte a hijos de Dios resucitados a una vida nueva y eterna.
