Invoke

Just before the priest pronounces the words of consecration over the bread and wine, he invokes the transforming power of the Holy Spirit to come upon the gifts. "Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall." This invocation envisions the Spirit transforming the gifts of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ. At the same time, because we bring ourselves to Mass to give ourselves over to the Lord in our self-gift, the prayer also invokes the Holy Spirit to come upon us and transform us as well into the Body of Christ.

The double invocation of the Holy Spirit on bread and wine and on us and the double transformation of both into the Body of Christ show us the power of God at work in our worship. Far from a common gathering of like-minded people or friends, our celebration of Mass is an extraordinary experience. Here we know and taste the transforming power of God's Holy Spirit- invoked on the gifts of bread and wine and the gift of ourselves

Invocar

Justo antes de que el sacerdote pronuncie las palabras de la consagración sobre el pan y el vino, invoca la fuerza transformadora del Espíritu Santo sobre los dones: "... por eso te pedimos que santifiques estos dones con la efusión de tu Espíritu". Esta invocación visualiza al Espíritu transformando los dones del pan y del vino en el Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. Al mismo tiempo, porque nosotros mismos venimos para ofrendarnos al Señor en nuestra entrega, la oración también invoca que el Espíritu Santo venga sobre nosotros y nos transforme igualmente en Cuerpo de Cristo.

La doble invocación del Espíritu Santo, sobre el pan y el vino y sobre nosotros, y la transformación de ambos en el Cuerpo de Cristo muestran el poder de Dios operando en nuestra liturgia. Más allá de una reunión común de gentes afines o de amigos, nuestra celebración de la Misa es una experiencia extraordinaria. Aquí conocemos y gustamos la fuerza transformadora del Espíritu Santo de Dios, invocado sobre la ofrenda de pan y vino, y sobre el don de nosotros mismos.

June 2, 2013
Corpus Christi

In today's Gospel, Jesus fed the crowds with more than enough food. In today's feast of Corpus Christi, we celebrate that Jesus feeds us today with his Body and Blood.

Have I truly appreciated this sustaining and life-giving presence of the Lord in my life as an unflinching resource?

June 2, 2013
Corpus Christi

En el Evangelio del día de hoy, Jesús alimenta a las multitudes con comida suficiente. En el banquete del día de hoy, de Corpus Christi, celebramos que Jesús nos alimenta con su Cuerpo y su Sangre.

¿Realmente he apreciado la sustentadora y vivificante presencia del Señor en mi vida como un recurso infalible?

We pray for

Body and Blood of Jesus Christ Celebrating the Real Presence

QuickTime™ and a

The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ reflects the Church's developing understanding of the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Originally called the Feast of Corpus Christi, this celebration grew out of a controversy in the Middle Ages over the presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Some made the claim that Christ was physically present in such a way that the consecrated Host became human flesh. Others said Christ was present in the Eucharist only in a spiritual way.

The Feast of Corpus Christi, established throughout the Church in 1264, proclaims faith in the full yet mysterious Eucharistic presence of Christ. St. Thomas Aquinas, author of Liturgy for the Feast, argued that we know Christ is fully present in the Eucharist by faith, not by our senses or by human understanding alone.

Traditional Corpus Christi celebrations included Eucharistic processions, Benediction and the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Today, the feast is known as the Body and Blood of Christ, celebrated on the Sunday following Trinity Sunday.

Vatican Council II emphasized the importance of the Eucharist as a communal liturgical celebration, but also reaffirmed the Church's teaching about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Since the Council, the popes have urged a continued devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

Lord Jesus Christ, we worship You living among us in the Sacrament of Your Body and Blood.

May we offer to our Father in heaven a solemn pledge of undivided love.

May we offer to our brothers and sisters a life poured out in loving service of that kingdom where You live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and Ever. Amen

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

If you miss the deadline, give the name as you enter the front lobby on the evening of the Mass.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

Jesus asked the twelve apostles, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" (Luke 9: 11-17). Jesus left it to his disciples to go and feed the crowds after he said the blessing over their limited provisions. What do YOU have to offer to the hungry world? If you have ever considered a vocation to the priesthood, contact Fr. Brian Welter, bwelter@archchicago.org or at 312-534-8298, or go to www.ChicagoPriest.com. For information on religious life contact Sr. Elyse Ramirez, OP at 312-534-5240 or eramirez@archchicago.org, and for the Permanent Diaconate program contact Deacon Bob Puhala at 847-837-4562 or bpuhala@usml.edu.

Feast of Corpus Christi

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." LUKE 9: 17

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when we share what we have – even if it doesn't seem like much – miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! God blesses all the gifts we offer and makes them wondrous.

Please don't forget us during your summer activities!

With graduations, family reunions, picnics, vacations and all of the other summer plans you and your family may have, please be sure to keep current with your contributions to the Parish while you are away. We wish everyone a very blessed, safe and happy summer.

The Chicago Department of Water will be installing a new water main in South Houston Avenue. Completion of the work is expected by late June 2013.
