PENTECOST

The Day: We celebrate the Day of Pentecost as the birthday of the Church. The living and ascended Jesus poured out the Holy Spirit upon his disciples, fulfilling his promise to “send another Counselor.” With a lively wind like the creative breath of God in the first chapter of Genesis, the Spirit energized the disciples. The Spirit of Truth showed them the meaning of the Old Testament, the significance of Jesus’ life and death, and baptized them with power to bring the Truth to the people of the world. They demonstrated this power by speaking in languages understood by the visitors to Jerusalem from all over the ancient world.

The History: St. Paul celebrated Passover-Easter with the Philippians, then hurried to keep Pentecost in Jerusalem (Acts 20: 6, 16).

In early centuries of the Western Church. Pentecost was the last call for baptisms for those who were not able to be baptized on Easter. Baptisms took place on the Saturday vigil, as at Easter, and included many of the same lessons and prayers.

In the Middle ages, a variety of local customs developed around Pentecost. Roses were dropped from rafters to simulate the tongues of fire. Trumpets were sounded to recall the sound of the rushing wind. In Italy, the day was called pasqua arossa from the red vestments. Most widespread was the use of a dove to represent the Holy Spirit. A live dove was set free inside the church to fly off or a carved one was let down by a rope from the roof. Pentecost partying became widespread in England and Germany and, later, among the slaves and white settlers of the colonies of the New World.

The Symbols: “Tongues” of Fire appeared to hover over the disciples on Pentecost as a sign of the Lord’s presence and power. In Old Testament times fire was often the sign of God’s presence (Moses met the Lord at the burning bush) and of God’s holiness, which may purify or punish.

Red is the liturgical color for Pentecost Day. Red traditionally reminds us of the offering of life—our lives—in the service of our Lord. Baptism is tied to receiving the Holy Spirit in the New Testament. John the Baptist talked about a baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire which Jesus would bring. And when Jesus was baptized with water by John, the Spirit descended like a dove above him. (Luke 3: 15-22).

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multi-cultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

The bereavement ministries of St. Kevin, St. George and St. Florian churches invite you to attend a Night to Remember, a bilingual prayer service remembering our deceased loved ones. The service will be held at St. Kevin Church, 10509 Torrence Avenue, Chicago, on Tuesday, June 17, 2014 at 7:00pm. If you would like, please bring a photo of your loved one. Refreshments will be served in the parish hall after the service. For more information, please call St. Kevin's rectory at (773) 721-2563.

Raising Faith-Filled Kids - One Word at a Time

Call

My dad could whistle so loudly you could hear its piercing sound three blocks away.

When we heard his signature tune, we'd come running home.

That was just one way my dad was a good shepherd to us. He also guided us to ignore the calls of those who would lead us into bad behaviors and instead to listen to God's call to live a life worthy of being called Christian.

You can help your children become attuned to God's call by familiarizing them with stories from the Gospel; worshiping with the community on Sundays; and praying regularly at meals, bedtime, and in good times and bad. Be a good shepherd; teach your child how to listen for and recognize God's call. God will speak to all who call on him.

—Tom McGrath

Criando hijos creyentes • una palabra a la vez

Llamado

Mi papá podía silbar tan fuerte que podíamos oír su agudo sonido a tres calles de distancia. Cuando oíamos su tonada característica, volvíamos corriendo a casa. Esa era solo una de las maneras en la que papá era un buen pastor para nosotros. También nos guiaba para que ignoráramos el llamado de aquellos que pudieran llevarnos a seguir malos comportamientos y nos enseñó a escuchar el llamado de Dios a vivir una vida digna de ser llamada cristiana.

Usted puede ayudar a sus hijos para que estén en sintonía con el llamado de Dios familiarizándolos con historias del Evangelio, rindiendo culto con la comunidad los domingos y rezando regularmente en las comidas, antes de irse a dormir y en los buenos y malos momentos. Sea un buen pastor; enseñe a su hijo a cómo escuchar y reconocer el llamado de Dios. Dios les hablará a todos los que lo invoquen.

—Tom McGrath
