ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

June 22, 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Easter Sunday 2013, Pope Francis encouraged each person to be a witness of charity. The Holy Father has continued to remind each of us through his words and actions that we must serve our brothers and sisters in order to be true disciples of Christ.

In dioceses where many are dependent on the Church for social and pastoral support, as well as regions where Catholics are persecuted for their faith, His Holiness extends his charity to those most in need.

This year's Peter's Pence Collection provides each of us the opportunity to be a witness of charity. In addition, our financial support of this annual collection will assist Pope Francis in strengthening dioceses, religious orders and struggling communities of faith. I thank you for your generosity.

May Our Lord continue to bless you and your loved ones as you share your faith and charity in your parish, the Archdiocese of Chicago and throughout the Universal Church. You and those you love are in my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

Blessing for Fathers

Blessed are You, God and Father of us all, for the gift of our father. Today we honor and thank him for the gift he is in our lives. His love for us is a reflection of Your divine love. Bless him this day with Your strength and Your power that he may continue to be a sign of Your abiding love. May we, who have the honor of bearing his family name, assist him with our obedience, respect and deep affection. Bless him on this special day with happiness, health, peace and good fortune so that he who shared of his very life may live together with You, his God and heavenly Father, forever and ever. Amen.

Body and Blood of Jesus Christ

Celebrating the Real Presence

The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ reflects the Church's developing understanding of the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Originally called the Feast of Corpus Christi, this celebration grew out of a controversy in the Middle Ages over the presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Some made the claim that Christ was physically present in such a way that the consecrated Host became human flesh. Others said Christ was present in the Eucharist only in a spiritual way. The Feast of Corpus Christi, established throughout the Church in 1264, proclaims faith in the full yet mysterious Eucharistic presence of Christ. St. Thomas Aquinas, author of Liturgy for the Feast, argued that we know Christ is fully present in the Eucharist by faith, not by our senses or by human understanding alone. Traditional Corpus Christi celebrations included Eucharistic processions, Benediction and the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Today, the feast is known as the Body and Blood of Christ, celebrated on the Sunday following Trinity Sunday. Vatican Council II emphasized the importance of the Eucharist as a communal liturgical celebration, but also reaffirmed the Church's teaching about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Since the Council, the popes have urged a continued devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Feast of Corpus Christi - "They all ate and were satisfied. And when the left over fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." LUKE 9:17. The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when we share what we have, even if it doesn't seem like much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! God blesses all the gifts we offer and makes them wondrous.

Year of Strong Catholic Parents

July 2013 - June 2014

Raising Faith-Filled Kids - One Word at a Time

Lift

Being a parent involves a lot of lifting. We lift our infants from their cribs when they need to be fed or comforted. Later on, we lift them when they fall and scrape a knee. We “give them a lift” to soccer practice or piano lessons. When they are sad and “need a lift,” we find ways to cheer them up. In the musical Les Misérables, the hero promises a dying mother that he will care for her daughter. “I will raise her to the light,” he says. Strong Catholic parents raise their children toward the light of Christ. We do this in many ways throughout the days, weeks, and years they are in our care. Ask yourself, How have I “raised my child to the light” in recent days? How else does my child “need a lift” right now?

—Tom McGrath

Criando hijos creyentes • una palabra a la vez

Levantar

Ser padre de familia implica levantar mucho. Levantamos a nuestros bebés de sus cunas cuando hay que darles de comer o consolarlos. Más tarde, los levantamos cuando se caen y se raspan una rodilla. Los “levantamos en el carro” y los llevamos a su práctica de fútbol o lecciones de piano. Cuando están tristes y necesitan que les “levantemos el ánimo”, buscamos maneras de animarlos. En el musical Les Misérables, el héroe le promete a una madre moribunda que cuidará de su hija. “La elevaré hacia la luz”, dice él. Los padres católicos fuertes educan y elevan a sus hijos hacia la luz de Cristo. Nosotros lo hacemos de muchas maneras durante los días, semanas y años en los que están a nuestro cuidado. Pregúntese, ¿cómo he “elevado a mi hijo a la luz” en estos días? ¿De qué otra forma mi hijo necesita que lo “levanten” ahora?

—Tom McGrath
