Students receive instruction in computers, Physical Education and Music in addition to the regular curriculum. Ex-tended day care before and after school is available for working families. We have a very successful athletic program for both boys and girls. They can be involved in basketball, volleyball and cheer-leading. Tuition assistance is available. Our upcoming Open Houses are June 21 and August 17. Tours are available any school day from 8:30 AM to 3:15 PM. View our website at <http://stflorianschool.org>.

Mission Statement of St. Florian School

Our mission is to provide each student with a Catholic education in all areas. The faculty and school families join the parish staff and fellow parishioners to form a living Catholic faith community. Our school population is multicultural and fosters sensitivity to the needs of all. We promote the students' burning desire for learning. Through education, service, support, formation and challenge, the students are called to realize their potential spiritually, socially, and intellectually. For one hundred years our school has been committed to carry out the Gospel values of Jesus Christ on a daily basis.

Please don't forget us during your summer activities! With graduations, family reunions, picnics, vacations and all of the other summer plans you and your family may have, please be sure to keep current with your contributions to the Parish while you are away.

We wish everyone a very blessed, safe and happy summer.

Do Re Me

by Paul Turner

John the Baptist is ultimately responsible for the names of the notes in the musical scale. In the eighth century, and unknown poet and composer wrote a hymn in Latin to observe the feast of the birth of John the Baptist (June 24). Here are the words of his first verse: Ut queant laxis / resonare fibris / Mira gestorum / famulいたorum, / Solve polluti / labii reatum, / Sancte Ioannes. This verse asks St. John the Baptist to loosen our voices to praise God, just as the voice of his father, Zechariah, was loosened. Zechariah had been mute throughout Elizabeth's pregnancy, only getting his voice back after John was born.

In the 11th century, musician Guido of Arezzo noticed something about the melody of that hymn. The first note of each phrase begins one pitch higher than the preceding one, spelling out the first six notes of the scale. As you can see, the Latin symbols associated with them are ut-re-mi-fa-sol-la. Guido gave the pitches those names, basing them on the hymn to John the Baptist.

The first letters of the final two words (Sancte Ioannes) eventually gave the name to the seventh pitch, originally called "si." It was later altered to "ti" – just as "ut" was changed to "do" – probably because it was more pleasant to the ear.

The hymn is still part of the official evening prayer of the Roman Catholic church. Near the longest day of the year, when the sun starts its descent, the notes mark their ascent. John the Baptist said of Jesus, "he must increase; I must decrease." As the decreasing light of day recalls the birth of John the Baptist, the ascending notes of the scale point the way towards Jesus Christ.

Year of the Sacraments

Pope Francis' Vision of Healing and Communion

July 2014 - June 2015

Year of Sacraments • One Word at a Time

Gather

We do not go to God one by one. God has decided to gather us as his holy people in the Church, which is the Body of Christ. When we celebrate the sacraments, we do so as God's Church. Even though our experience may be deeply, deeply personal, for example, when we confess our sins and receive forgiveness or feel the presence of Jesus in Holy Communion, our experience is never just ours alone. We are all a part of the Body of Christ, joined and built up together.

If God has decided to gather us as his people in the Church, then we are called to join that gathering. When we come together, for example, to celebrate the sacraments and worship God, we do so with generous and willing hearts. We support each other, pray for each other, and encourage each other. We also accept in faith the sacramental rituals and prayers entrusted to the Church.

Año De Los Sacramentos • De Palabra En Palabra

Reunir

No acudimos a Dios uno por uno. Dios ha decidido reunirnos como su Pueblo sagrado en la Iglesia, que es el Cuerpo de Cristo. Cuando celebramos los sacramentos, lo hacemos como Iglesia de Dios. Si bien nuestra experiencia puede llegar a ser profundamente personal, por ejemplo, cuando confesamos nuestros pecados y recibimos el perdón o cuando sentimos la presencia de Jesús en la Sagrada Comunión, nuestra experiencia nunca es solo nuestra. Todos somos parte del Cuerpo de Cristo, unidos y edificados en conjunto.

Si Dios ha decidido reunirnos como su Pueblo en la Iglesia, entonces somos llamados a participar en esa reunión. Cuando nos reunimos, por ejemplo, para celebrar los sacramentos y alabar a Dios, lo hacemos con un corazón generoso y dispuesto. Nos apoyamos los unos a los otros, rezamos los unos por los otros y nos alentamos los unos a los otros. También aceptamos en fe los rituales sacramentales y las oraciones encomendadas a la Iglesia.
